A new chapter at PNP school Jambrung

A Splash of Color, A Wave of Hope at PNP School

The external walls of PNP School now showcase stunning murals painted by the talented Mr. Manoj Deshmukh and Mr. Sachin Sawant. Their work fills the space with color, imagination, that welcomes the students every single day.

Welcoming with Warmth

A new sofa has been added to PNP School, giving staff and visitors a comfortable place to sit.

It's a small change that makes the space feel more welcoming.

Bridging the Distance

Nine Adivasi students who couldn't afford daily transport to school now travel with ease. With the help of our donors, we covered their state transport bus passes for the academic year

Supporting Menstrual Health

To support the health and comfort of girl students, a sanitary pad vending machine and incinerator have been installed at PNP School. Ensuring that menstrual hygiene is managed with ease and convenience

Making the day sweeter

Sweets were distributed on the joyous occasion of Diwali, bringing a smile on the students faces

Promoting Wellness and Learning on International Yoga Day

Promoting Wellness and Learning on International Yoga Day
On the occasion of International Yoga Day, Saath Saath Foundation partnered on-ground with Path of Bliss. Students were introduced to basic practices of Yoga Sadhana, encouraging mindfulness, self-awareness, and physical well-being.

Alongside the session, a cupboard, sports equipment, and laboratory materials were donated to the school. These contributions will go a long way in enhancing both physical activity and science learning among students.

We're grateful to Path of Bliss for believing in a holistic approach to education and supporting wellness in meaningful ways.
