Strengthen and Expand Indigenous Language Programs

Patrick Werito | Dual Language Education of New Mexico

Patrick Werito is Coordinator of Tribal Initiatives for Dual Language Education of New Mexico. In his role, he is supporting and working with tribal partner schools to strengthen their indigenous language program and reframe how tribal communities approach teaching the community language to the next generation of speakers. In this session, Patrick will share lessons learned in his work with the tribal partner communities.

Hall of Fame Luncheon • Saturday, April 27, 2019

The Bilingual Hall of Fame was established in 1977 in order to recognize individuals who have made significant contributions to the bilingual education community of New Mexico.

BILINGUAL COMMUNITY SPECIAL AWARD

New Mexico Center on Law and Poverty

Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund

This prestigious award is designed to recognize organizations in our community that not only support our bilingual community, but go above and beyond in advocating for our students and families. This award was last presented in 1999 and the NMABE Board of Directors is honored to present this once again in 2019 to two exceptional organizations within our community that most recently made history in our state.

UNIVERSITY BILINGUAL EDUCATION PROFESSOR OF THE YEAR AWARD

This award recognizes an outstanding university bilingual education professor. The university where this professor works must be a teacher-training institution with a complete bilingual program. The professor must be employed full-time at this university with a significant part of her/his teaching duties dedicated to the bilingual education teacher-training program.
