Date

To be valid, a proxy must include the date signed, must state the date, time, and place of the meeting for which it was given (this is already listed at top of proxy form), and must be signed by the authorized person who executed the proxy. A proxy is effective only for the specific meeting for which it was originally given, as the meeting may lawfully be adjourned and reconvened from time to time, and automatically expires 90 days after the date of the meeting for which it was originally given.
