Notes & Further Guidance

1. The Gordon Setter Breed Council strongly recommends applicants for all lists should have attended a Field Trial Training day, or demonstration of the working ability of Gordon Setters.
2. To remain on any of the Lists, it is obligatory that all judging critiques be submitted to the weekly dog paper.
3. Please contact the Secretary of one of the UK breed clubs, or Gordon Setter Breed Council, for an application form. Forms can be downloaded from the Breed Council website and can be emailed to the breed Council Secretary when completed, along with evidence of relevant education/training/etc.
4. Judging experience in other than gundog breeds to be briefly summarised. Large attachment of generalised CV is not necessary.
5. "Owning" Gordon Setters must include living with.
6. "Exhibiting" means having exhibited your own dog, not just handling Gordon Setters owned by others.
7. Copies of certificates for KC assessments and Gordon Setter seminars must be submitted with initial application. Once the breed Council Secretary has confirmed receipt, the same copies will not be required for future applications.
8. Breed Specific Seminars: "Attendance" at a seminar is applicable to having handled either an in-person "live" seminar, or an online seminar; such online seminars are also considered acceptable for those who require a "refresher" Seminar, should they not have attended any Gordon Setter breed specific seminars in the past seven years. "Hands-on" assessment requirements can only be obtained in person and undertaken at "live" events. Only one hands-on assessment is required to be passed. All Gordon Setter Breed Specific seminars, of any type, must be organised by, or in conjunction with, one of the UK Breed Clubs and run under Kennel Club Code of Best Practice To be considered acceptable. Championship show judges who are passed by the Kennel Club to award CC's in four or more breeds are not required to pass a hands-on assessment.
