32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 8, 2026
32.° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Domingo, 8 de noviembre de 2026

Holy Name of Mary Church - Iglesia del Santo Nombre de María

Key Theme: Stay awake and ready
Focus: Wisdom and preparation
Summary: God calls us to seek wisdom and live with hope. We stay ready by keeping our faith strong.
Challenge: Pay attention to how you are living each day. Make choices that help you stay close to God.
Action Step: Set aside a few quiet minutes to pray and ask God for wisdom.
Verse to Remember: "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Matthew 25:13)

Welcome home!

At Holy Name of Mary Church, we are a family of faith gathered around the Eucharist and the Sacraments. We welcome everyone with open hearts as we grow together in knowing, loving, and serving God. Guided by Christ's love, we strive to care for one another, lend a helping hand, and be a light in our community.

¡Bienvenidos a casa!

En la Iglesia Santo Nombre de María, somos una familia de fe reunida alrededor de la Eucaristía y los Sacramentos. Recibimos a todos con alegría mientras crecemos juntos en el conocimiento, el amor y el servicio a Dios. Guiados por el amor de Cristo, nos cuidamos unos a otros, ayudamos a quienes lo necesitan y compartimos la luz de Jesús con nuestra comunidad.

The Altar & Rosary Society Christmas Bazaar – December 5

There's a little Christmas magic in the air at Holy Name of Mary, and we need your helping hands and generous hearts!

We are collecting themed gift baskets, one large item, or baked goods for our Christmas Bazaar on December 5, and we'd love for you to be part of the fun!

Whether it's a cozy winter basket, a baker's delight, a coffee lover's treat, or something dreamed up with a little imagination, every basket or baked good is a gift of love to our parish!

Here's how you can help:

- Donate a themed basket! Wrapped and ready to go would be wonderful, but if wrapping isn't your specialty, don't worry! Bring your basket anyway!
- Have an empty basket or extra ribbon? We'd be delighted to give them a new purpose! Empty baskets will also be available in Mary's Family Room at the back of church for anyone who needs one.
- Not a basket maker? Gift cards of $25 or less OR one item that we can use in a raffle are another wonderful way to help! (You may donate more than one gift card. Simply place them in an envelope marked Christmas Bazaar and drop it in the collection basket at Mass.)
- If you cannot make a themed basket, we will gratefully accept one or two larger items rather than the many small themed items that go into a basket.
- And remember, we will gratefully accept any baked goods! Please start planning your baked goods for the Bake Sale Table of the Christmas Bazaar. If your delicious items can be frozen, you can start baking now! Please bring them on Friday, December 4 at 1 PM or on Saturday morning, December 5 about 8 AM.

Donations Drop-Off at the Rectory:
Monday–Thursday: 9:00 a.m.–Noon
Friday: 11:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m.

Can't make those hours? Just give Sally McGrath a call at 289-4302, and she'll help make arrangements.

Just don't wait until the last minute! The sooner those beautiful baskets, gift cards and baked goods arrive, the more time our wonderful volunteers will have to prepare them to be in the Bazaar!

We would love to receive the themed baskets or donated gift items before Thanksgiving but no later than the afternoon of December 4.

With grateful hearts and Christmas blessings,
The Holy Name of Mary Altar & Rosary Society

Veterans Day
I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith
2 Timothy 4:7

We celebrate Veterans Day as a federal holiday this week. Veterans Day began as Armistice Day, a day to remember the armistice that ended the First World War at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of the year 1918. Armistice Day was renamed Veterans Day in 1954 as a day to honor all the living who served our nation in uniform. Armed Forces Day in May honors those currently serving in the military, and Memorial Day honors all the deceased who served.

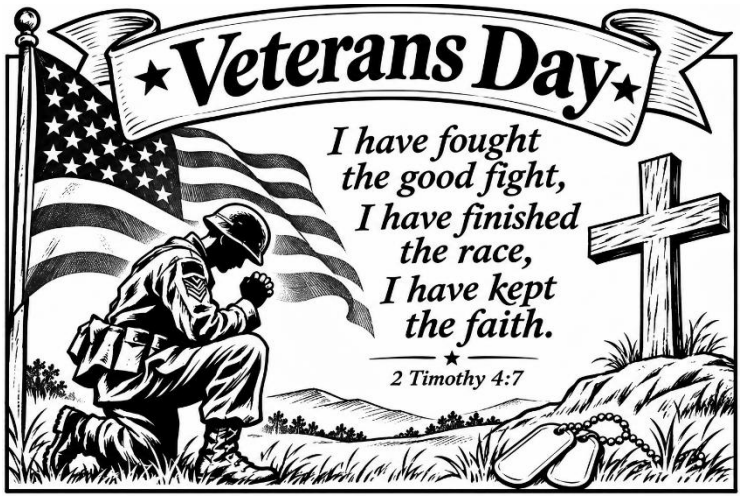

Whenever I visit the campus of the University of Notre Dame, our Lady's University, I make it a point to visit three monuments of great meaning to veterans: the War Memorial Fountain, the "God, Country, Notre Dame" archway of the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and the Father William Corby statue outside his namesake clergy residence, Corby Hall. Father Corby was the third president of Notre Dame and served as the chaplain of the Union Army's Irish Brigade. He is depicted with his right arm lifted as he gave general absolution to the brigade as they prepared to charge the Confederate lines on the second day of the Battle of Gettysburg. This identical statue stands on the Union line in Gettysburg. I always kneel down before it in great reverence and contrition for my sins as if Father Corby were absolving me himself. These monuments remind me of the virtues of patriotism, service and sacrifice, but above all, love—love of country, love of family, love of the Church and love of God, the love of a veteran willing to lay down his life in defense of justice, liberty and life itself.

In deepest gratitude to the countless men and women who have served our Nation in uniform over the past 250 years, we salute you and leave you with the words of the Soldier's Prayer:

Lord ere I join in deadly strife and battle's terrors dare
First would I render soul and life to Thine Almighty care.
And when grim deth in smoke wreaths robed comes thundering o'er the scene,
What fear can reach the soldier's heart who trust in Thee has been?

May Our Lord through the hands of Our Lady shower down His blessings upon us, now and always and forever.

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam…For the Greater Glory of God.
Father Kevin

Día de los Veteranos
He combatido el buen combate, he terminado mi carrera, he guardado lo que me confiaron.
2 Timoteo 4,7

Esta semana celebramos el Día de los Veteranos como feriado federal. El Día de los Veteranos comenzó como el Día del Armisticio, un día para recordar el armisticio que puso fin a la Primera Guerra Mundial a las 11 de la mañana del 11 de noviembre de año 1918. El Día del Armisticio pasó a llamarse Día de los Veteranos en 1954 para honrar a todos los que sirvieron a nuestra nación en las fuerzas armadas. El Día de las Fuerzas Armadas, en mayo, honra a quienes actualmente prestan servicio militar, y el Día de los Caídos honra a todos los fallecidos que sirvieron.

Siempre que visito el campus de la Universidad de Notre Dame, la Universidad de Nuestra Señora, me aseguro de visitar tres monumentos de gran significado para los veteranos: la Fuente Conmemorativa de Guerra, el arco "Dios, Patria, Notre Dame" de la Basílica del Sagrado Corazón y la estatua del Padre William Corby frente a su residencia clerical, Corby Hall. El Padre Corby fue el tercer presidente de Notre Dame y sirvió como capellán de la Brigada Irlandesa del Ejército de la Unión. Se le representa con el brazo derecho levantado, impartiendo la absolución general a la brigada mientras se preparaban para cargar contra las líneas confederadas en el segundo día de la Batalla de Gettysburg. Esta misma estatua se alza en la línea de la Unión en Gettysburg. Siempre me arrodillo ante ella con profunda reverencia y arrepentimiento por mis pecados, como si el Padre Corby me estuviera absolviendo personalmente. Estos monumentos me recuerdan las virtudes del patriotismo, el servicio y el sacrificio, pero sobre todo, el amor: amor a la patria, amor a la familia, amor a la Iglesia y amor a Dios, el amor de un veterano dispuesto a dar su vida en defensa de la justicia, la libertad y la vida misma.

Con profunda gratitud a los incontables hombres y mujeres que han servido a nuestra nación con uniforme durante los últimos 250 años, los saludamos y les expresamos nuestro más profundo agradecimiento por su servicio y sacrificio.

Que Nuestro Señor, a través de las manos de Nuestra Señora, derrame Sus bendiciones sobre nosotros, ahora y siempre y para siempre.

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam...Para la mayor gloria de Dios.
Padre Kevin
