1st Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

Rabbinical teaching holds the ‘suffering servant’ to be Israel; the Church interprets it as foreshadowing Jesus. The many, again as the rabbis interpret it, refers to all nations; the Church reads it as all humankind. Remembering that our Christian beliefs are rooted in Jewish tradition helps us to understand scripture, both Old and New Testaments.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Jesus is fully human and was tempted, during his forty days in the desert, to follow other paths than the one put before him by the Father. Because he overcame those specifically human temptations, Jesus then is suited to be our ‘high priest’ and our exemplar. The biggest challenge for all of us is to succumb to the temptation of worldliness rather than Godliness; we are not asked to be perfect, but to acknowledge the perfection of Christ and to always put him first.

Gospel Reading: Mark 10:35-45

To be a servant is rarely viewed as a positive use of one’s talents. How many of us want our children to grow up and become servants? On the other hand, to be an important person, a person who directs others’ activities or is the person ‘in charge’ is generally viewed positively. How many of us would feel pretty good about our kids growing up to be ‘important’ persons? But Jesus turns all of this upside down: Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. A perfect example of what Jesus meant is Mother Theresa, a person who lived only to serve others. She had no interest in being important, or ‘in charge’. She served dying street people by bringing a little bit of human dignity to their last days. And yet who in this jaded world doesn’t know of her? And curiously enough, by anyone’s estimation, she was clearly first among us.

Notice Regarding Reporting Sexual Abuse of a Minor

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-Hour Child Abuse hotline (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis. To this end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being. As such, information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at 570-862-7551.

DIOCESAN ROSARY RALLY

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

It is with profound joy and gratitude to God that I would like to extend a special invitation to you and your family to join me for an incredibly special even in our Diocese.

On November 16, 2024, I am asking the faithful of our local church to come together to mark a significant milestone: the 75th anniversary of the first Rosary Rally held in the United States by Father Patrick Peyton, which occurred in Scranton in 1949, and brought together approximately 50,000 people.

Father Peyton, known worldwide as the “Rosary Priest,” devoted his ministry to spreading devotion to our Blessed Mother and promoting the Rosary as a powerful instrument for peace, strength, and spiritual unity. His motto, “the family that prays together, stays together,” still resonates deeply in our hearts and lives.

Our large Diocesan Rosary Rally will take place on November 16 at 1:30 p.m. in the Cathedral of Saint Peter – but there will be many other activities taking place that day in Scranton in which to participate.

Please join me in making this effort successful by inviting your family, friends, and others to partake in this occasion of grace and unity. Together, let us honor Father Peyton’s legacy by embracing his vision of a united, praying community.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Joseph C. Bambera, D.D., J.C.L.
Bishop of Scranton

Arise for Life with Jim Caviezel

Join us for “Arise for Life with Jim Caviezel,” a special event benefiting the Providence Pregnancy Center (PPC). Best known for his portrayal of Jesus in ‘The Passion of the Christ,’ Jim Caviezel will visit Scranton on October 16, 2024, to share a powerful pro-life message. The event will take place at The Theater at North and will feature a silent auction as well as Jim Caviezel’s keynote speech. For those interested in meeting Jim Caviezel in person, please contact PPC for sponsorship opportunities at help@ppcscranton.org or 570.341.7045. To purchase tickets and for more information, please visit www.ppcscranton.org/events.

Pilgrimage to Italy and Rome

Pope Francis has announced ‘Pilgrims of Hope’ is the theme for the Holy Year 2025. A Holy Year, or Jubilee, is a time of pilgrimage, prayer, repentance, and acts of mercy, based on the Old Testament tradition of a Jubilee Year of rest, forgiveness, and renewal.

Bishop Joseph C. Bambera will lead a Pilgrimage to Italy and Rome from Aug. 31-Sept. 9, 2025, in celebration of the Holy Year. The trip will include a Papal Audience, Masses celebrated daily at various Basilicas and Cathedrals, a unique opportunity to visit the Scavi, a tour of the necropolis under St. Peter’s Basilica culminating at the tomb of St. Peter, and much more.

For more information, including a day-by-day itinerary, visit the Diocese of Scranton website at dioceseofscranton.org.

VOTER GUIDES

For your reference, the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference Voter Guides are the only authorized materials that can be reproduced or distributed on parish property in the Diocese of Scranton. The Voter Guides are currently available on the Diocese of Scranton website at dioceseofscranton.org and will be printed in the October 17th edition of The Catholic Light.
