Foreword

Dear MDCAT Aspirants,

It is understood that the UHS MDCAT Vocabulary enjoys lion's share in the MDCAT English Paper. No one can even think of achieving 100% marks in English section without preparing UHS Vocab well. My guidelines are very clear and are as follows:

- 1: Prepare at least 30 synonyms per UHS word
- 2: Be able to make groups of similar UHS Words
- 3: Connotations of UHS Words
- 4: Collocations of UHS Words
- 5: UHS Words followed by certain prepositions

Further to this book, download UHS Pictorial Vocabulary from www.salmanulwaheed.com and also listen to my YouTube lectures on MDCAT Vocabulary.

Love to see you becoming a great doctor!

Guidelines to Remember:

MCATIANS! The review of the UHS MCAT past papers maintains that 'vocabulary based' MCQs are taken up for the evaluation of your optimum learning of MDCAT Vocabulary.

- Prepare MDCAT Vocabulary with all possible Connotations and Collocations.
- Read the sentence semantically and understand the linguistic context for the best option.

Consider the following steps to complete this initial section of your paper.

Steps to reach at the right option:

Step 1 (Comprehension): First and the foremost thing is to understand the meaning of the sentence. Read the sentence by filling the space with the option No. 1 in order to comprehend the meaning of the sentence. You cannot get the meaning with the unfilled space anywhere in the sentence. It is important because it tells you what the writer wants to convey.

Step 2 (Placing and Replacing /Filling in the blank through shuffling the choices):

Put all the four choices in the blank one by one and relate the meaning to the role of keyword each time. Through this process you can easily select the right option within one minute. This is the best 3-step method for logic-based Sentence completion.

Step 3((Excluding the Options) If you have prepared MDCAT Vocab very well, first three steps are enough to help you reach at the best option.

Step 4 (Find Keywords/Phrases): Many clues (words/ phrases) guide us in the process of selecting the appropriate option.

Step 5 (Emergency Point; MDCAT Vocab word is generally correct):

Keywords/ phrases

Showing contrast

- In opposition to,
- In contrast to,
- But,
- Although/ yet
- In spite of
- However
- Against
- Despite
- Still
- Nonetheless
- Nevertheless
- Even so
- On the other hand
- Regardless of
- Notwithstanding

showing relevance

- Because
- Since/ as/ for
- For the reason that
- So/ thus/ consequently
- Therefore
- As a result
- Hence
- In accordance with/ to
- Like
- Corresponding
- And
- Since
- A semicolon (;)

‘No longer’ indicates change of state

You cannot say: I like engineering, so I got admission in a medical college. Obviously, the keyword ‘so’ wouldn’t allow you to create a paradoxical situation.

You can say: I like engineering, but I got admission in a medical college.

You cannot say: He is active and weak. The keyword ‘and’ relates two synonymous concepts.

You can say: He is active and healthy. OR He is active though weak. OR He is weak but active.

These easy examples have been added to determine the role of keywords. Identification of the keywords and their role give a better sense of selection from the given choices.
