CHEMICAL GRAMMAR

Foreword

Dear MDCAT Aspirants,

I am highly pleased to introduce to you this research effort of mine that means a lot to the contesters of MDCAT. This document debunks the underlying thoughts of the paper-setters of UHS MCAT English portion. I reckon it to be the most influential document in the history of MCAT English. It not only encompasses the solution of past papers but it also lays down some solid guidelines to follow for the teachers and the students of MDCAT English.

It's now up to YOU how you direct your studies towards the attainment of your ultimate goal. Never find fault with others. As you read these pages you get the realization of what to prepare and what not to prepare, and even how to prepare.

Love to see you becoming a great doctor!

ANALYSIS SECTION I (Sentence Completion):

- 1: Total No. of MCQs: 55 (2008-2019)
- 2: Sentences taken from the Intermediate textbooks (Q: 45, 46, 47, 48): 04/55 (6%)
- 3: Correct options from MCAT Vocab (old & new): 41/55(74%) (Highlighted with * in answers)
- 4: Phrasal Verbs: 5/55 (Highlighted with  in answers)
- 5: Collocation + Vocab + Logic + Idioms: 6/55 (11%) (Highlighted with ^o in answers)

GUIDELINES FOR THE TEACHERS AND THE STUDENTS:

- 1: Familiarize yourself with the usage of MCAT vocabulary in sentences. Despite mere learning of the UHS Vocab for synonyms, the students must memorize all the possible meanings of the UHS Vocab in respect to their meaning within a given context in a sentence.
- 2: Phrasal Verbs are the most important inquiry in the MCAT Paper. Here in sentence completion general phrasal verbs (abstain from, accuse of, hit on, look forward to) have been tested, while in the next two sections of 'Spot The Error' and 'Sentence Correction' phrasal verbs from the Text Books of intermediate and MDCAT vocab make up the larger share of the paper. The students need to recapitulate all the phrasal verbs (5-10 per day) they memorized during their Part II study.

3. For collocation, logical selection of the right option, contrast showing set of words, and relevance showing set of words consult 'CHEMICAL GRAMMAR' the most influential book on MCAT English in Pakistan.

As you know, in UHS MDCAT Paper 2019 the total marks of the English Portion were squeezed from 30 to 20; therefore, this portion of Vocabulary couldn't find its place in the paper. As far as my expert opinion is concerned, I do recommend you all that you keep preparing vocab through synonyms and reach at finding all the possible connotations of that particular word.

SECTION IV

GUIDELINES FOR TEACHERS AND STUDENTS:

- 1: MCAT Vocab is generally considered to be one of the most difficult areas in the overall preparation of MDCAT by the students. It hampers the smooth study of science subjects. I find it otherwise. With the years, the method I've evolved to learn vocab is unique in Pakistan and sorts out the problem very efficiently. The students who attend my multimedia lectures of MCAT vocab feel at extreme ease in memorizing the words with the help of their associations with certain pictures appearing on the multimedia followed by multiple synonyms. Further the coverage of the maximum range of synonyms is the next target. Most of the teachers neglect the importance of vocab in the routine study in the classes and just focus on grammar. My analysis of the past papers here obliges the MDCAT teachers to revisit their methods. The teachers and the students may download my vocab presentations with related pictures by simply visiting www.salmanulwaheed.com

The students also need to purchase my book on MDCAT Vocab named MDCAT VOCAB PLUS. The book also contains important phrasal verbs, Sentence Completion tips, Model Revision Planner, Daily Success Planner etc.
