7/06/25. Correspondence received.- Thank you letter received from Rehoboth for their annual donation for the upkeep of the churchyard.

8/06/25 Planning - Cllr Fuller brought up concerns regarding the repowering of Cold Northcott and in particular the size of the turbines in relation to the size they are replacing. He expressed concern that the Parish Council had not voiced their opposition to the planned development. At the meeting we had regarding this there were people from the surrounding area who attended also the developer, despite ample opportunity there were no objections voiced and the only remarks made were positive and in favour of the development. Members of the public who attended the meeting today were also positive in their support for the proposed development. Cllr Fuller was advised that he can as a private citizen put his objections to the Planning Committee. Cllr Bellis advised that as this development falls well within the criteria from Central Government that this is highly likely to be passed.

PA25/03914- Mr A Gilbard Land W of Oakleigh Parc PL158QX Agricultural development for agricultural building

PA25/03087- Prior notification for proposed small fronted agricultural barn for fodder and machinery. Mr Elliott Perrin Fitzparc Tresmeer PL15 8QT.

10/06/25. Any other business – Cllr Bellis requested we ask Adam if he could also cut the grass on the bank outside the hall seconded by Cllr Shirley who also requested we ask Adam for quarterly invoices.

Cllr Bellis also reiterated that we still need to get the bus shelters cleaned and painted

Cllr Shirley requested looking into getting a mirror positioned at the junction coming from Laneast into Tresmeer, it was agreed at last months meeting that this junction could benefit from the reinstatement of the mirror. Clerk to contact Highways regarding this.

11/06/25. Date of next meeting – 14th July 2025
