

A Mother's Love, A Nation's Awakening: On Marianne Williamson, a Soul-Level Vision, and the Battle for Earth's Future

The Vision That Changed Everything

On January 13, 2020, I had a profound spiritual initiation — a near-death, out-of-body experience that would reshape everything I thought I knew.

It occurred while I sat quietly in the waiting room of a police station, where I had just been processed and released following a traumatic and confusing arrest. In the physical, I was waiting for my sister to pick me up. But in the spiritual, I was somewhere else entirely.

In this liminal space — beyond time — I received a powerful vision. It felt like a soul-level assignment, a cosmic message from Source. I found myself backstage, waiting to go on a world stage to hand off a spiritual “baton” to Marianne Williamson.

I was completely exhausted — as if I had been battling evil across dimensions, even though at the time, I wasn’t consciously aware of the multidimensional warfare I was already engaged in. That awareness came later, as my mission unfolded through intense energetic attacks, gridwork activations, and the unmasking of deep state interference.

But in that moment — January 13, 2020 — I knew one thing: the next phase of this mission was about mobilizing the people. It was time for Marianne Williamson to take the baton.

There was supposed to be a huge celebration — a global moment of transition.

But something blocked it.

In the vision, a police officer kept entering the room, preventing me from stepping onto the stage. The celebration never happened. I was never allowed to hand off the baton.

And in real life — just moments after the vision ended — the same officer who had released me came back without explanation. She told me to get in the car. Without protest, I did.

She drove me to another town and handed me off to another officer in a strange, non-descript parking lot — with no legal process or clear explanation. It was as though the energetic interference I’d seen in the vision had just played out in 3D.

The Day Before She Dropped Out

What's even more striking is this:

On January 9, 2020, just four days before my NDE, I was watching one of Marianne Williamson's presidential campaign commercials when I was struck with a deep knowing — the kind of intuitive flash I've come to trust.

“She's going to be our next President.”

The very next day, January 10, 2020, she dropped out of the race. I was stunned. At the time, I didn't understand how my intuition could feel so right and yet appear so wrong.

Now I know — the message was real. But the timing was part of a larger unfolding.

Why Marianne Williamson?

I first encountered Marianne Williamson in 1993 when I read A Return to Love. It cracked me open. Her ability to speak truth to power while anchoring love — real, grounded, Divine Feminine love — shook something loose in me.

Since then, I've followed her work for over 30 years, including attending her keynote talks at Celebrate Your Life conferences in Arizona during the mid-2000s.

She's small in stature but carries the energy of a spiritual powerhouse.

Over the decades, Marianne Williamson has:

♥ Advocated tirelessly for spiritual empowerment and radical love through teachings grounded in A Course in Miracles.

🌈 Led community healing efforts during the height of the AIDS crisis, founding Project Angel Food to provide meals to homebound patients.

📖 Authored 14 books (including A Return to Love and Healing the Soul of America) that merge spiritual principle with political activism.

🕊️ Championed the idea of a U.S. Department of Peace, rooted in diplomacy, trauma healing, and compassionate leadership.

🗳️ Run for President (twice), offering one of the only platforms to bridge spiritual values and practical governance.

Her presence in politics has always felt like an anomaly — a threat to the status quo. Because she represents something the deep state cannot control: a spiritually awakened public.

🛡️ The System Isn't Designed for Truth-Tellers

It's no secret that the U.S. electoral system is not a level playing field. The deep state only allows approved candidates to rise to the top.

Candidates like Marianne Williamson are often:

- 🚫 Shut out of debates
- 📉 Ignored or distorted by corporate media
- 🧠 Mocked for speaking spiritual truths
- 🗳️ Denied meaningful exposure to voters

But there's another layer most people don't know about...

Kimberly Goguen, the Hall of Records & the Real Chain of Command

Kimberly Goguen is the Global Guardian, Ground Command, and Director of the Global Intelligence Agency (GIA) — a planetary-level role that goes beyond national governments and secret military programs.

She holds Global Clearance Level 74, the highest on Earth — above presidents, intelligence directors, and even members of the Secret Space Program.

Importantly: Kimberly Goguen is the one who ratifies presidents and global leaders in the Hall of Records.

According to her intelligence briefings:

 Donald Trump and Joe Biden have never been ratified in the Hall of Records.

 This means they are not officially recognized, despite media narratives.

Could Marianne Williamson still become our true next president — outside the rigged game?

Under Kimberly Goguen's oversight, it's absolutely possible.

Why This Matters Now

I believe the baton is still in my hand — and still meant to go to Marianne Williamson.

Not necessarily to hold office in a conventional way, but to embody the role of public spiritual leader, visionary, and catalyst for peace — while Blueprint HOPE and platforms like it support the ground-level reconstruction of Earth's systems.

Whether or not we ever meet in this life, I feel a soul-level connection with her — and trust that if our missions are meant to align, they will do so in divine timing and truth.

 I also want to be clear: while I've felt a deep soul connection to Marianne Williamson for decades, I remain open and discerning. Given how advanced the deep state's manipulation tactics are — especially when it comes to engineered spiritual psyops — I cannot say with 100% certainty that this connection isn't interference. I continue to pray for truth and clarity on this. Discernment is key in times like these.

And I believe the Mother's Love that has been so distorted in this world is returning — through us, through this work, through every heart courageous enough to remember who they truly are.

Final Thoughts

Whether or not you align with Marianne Williamson politically, I invite you to see what she represents symbolically:

-  The feminine Christ frequency returning to public leadership.
-  The merging of spirituality and justice.
-  The anchoring of a New Earth rooted in peace, not domination.
-  The public facing activation of what many of us have been doing quietly behind the scenes.

And whether or not our world stages ever align, the baton is still being passed.

Not just to Marianne Williamson — but to all of us.

The time is now. The stage is here. The veil is thin. And love is rising.
