

I Found Home in the LGBTQ+ Community — But I Also See the Hijack

May 25, 2025 | Blueprint HOPE

Love is real. Our souls are real. The distortion isn't.

 Let me be clear — I am a gold star lesbian.

And for most of my life, the only place I felt truly seen was within the LGBTQ+ community.

Not just accepted.

Affirmed. Celebrated. Safe.

We were the ones who didn't flinch at truth.

Who questioned systems.

Who held each other when the world refused to.

So what I say now — I say from the inside, not the outside.

With love. With grief. And with deep spiritual clarity:

 There's been a hijack.

Not of us.

Not of our beauty, our fluidity, our creative force.

But of our visibility.

The same system that once erased us

is now exploiting us —

creating confusion, division, and headlines that do not represent our hearts.

There's a difference between

authentic queer identity and a deep state psy-op.

There's a difference between

expanding gender expression and weaponized distortion.

We must be brave enough to say it.

To feel it.

To reclaim our sacredness from the spin.

Blueprint HOPE is for the real ones.

The queer kids who see through the illusion.
The genderqueer mystics holding space for the in-between.
The nonbinary starseeds and the old-soul lesbians who remember when this was about love.

Blueprint HOPE is for you.
Not to sanitize you.
Not to tokenize you.

But to say:

You are holy.
You are seen.
And you don't have to prove a thing.

Beyond All This — We Are Souls

And souls don't have gender.
We don't identify as "he" or "she" in the higher planes.
We are light. We are frequency. We are fire.

Our bodies are suits.
Temporary expressions of what the soul chose to explore this lifetime.

So of course love comes in many forms.
Of course some of us don't fit inside binaries.
That's the whole point of being here.

But the confusion?
The agendas?
The exploitation of children?
That's not us. And it never was.

To My LGBTQ+ Family

You've always held me.
Now I'm holding a space for you.
A space free of distortion.
Free of propaganda.
Rooted in truth,
anchored in spirit,
and built on love without condition.

With pride and protection,

Brenda
