 Kim Hayes Reply WOW! I'm on the verge of tears.....I'm dog sitting and the people have Netflix, so I started watching a series called: ROTTEN. It discusses food and food problems around the world. I just watched the one on Avocados. In Mexico the Cartels are kidnapping, killing and forcing Avocado growers to give them money it's such a profitable commodity. Yet in Chile, rivers have run dry due to the expansion of growing avocados for export. Small family farmers are crushed by big AG just like in North America. People have to pay to have water trucked in just to drink because the big avocado farmers have all the water rights. I just learned that it takes 18 gallons of water to make 1 avocado. This is heart breaking! Pieces of fruit have become more important than human life. We must do better! 9 10:05 PM Dr. Val admin Kim Hayes WOW! I'm on the verge of tears.....I'm dog sitting and the peopl... Yes. What is your solution for this travesty? Does anyone know how much water the people of those areas need? What kind of units that draw water from air would be needed? What is the cost of those units and what is the production availability? Who will pay for it since the people are poor? 10:06 PM

Kimberly Reply Deleted message I am not selling anything. I tested that amino acid myself, as it was difficult to get 145 grams of protein in my body a day, which is what my macro program required. I get more energy from it, and therefore thought I would tell all of you about it. Again, your body as a man, requires 80 grams of protein per day for you to function let alone thrive. If you don't have that, you will experience issues due to your lack of amino acids. The connection with your higher self and source is compromised at that point due to your failure to feed your brain. So this was an option for everyone to use, if they so choose to, in order to increase those same amino acids found in meat and up their intake. If this is not helpful to you, then please, don't watch. Apparently you feel you are at optimal health all on your own. So please share with all of us how you achieved your optimal health. Can I please interview you live so you can share with the rest of the group. Thank in advance. K ❤️ 21 👍 9 🗨️ 5 🔥 1 edited 9:23 PM	7-Apr-2022	https://t.me/c/1688716656/82456

Agreed that it is harder in today's world, but I started it in a city and even in winter with frost, near-zero sun, etc... And unlike most who went this path intuitively, I understand how it works. But I see that it is not a path for everyone because it is too hard for most people while there's the current chaos. Still, I think that Humanity can do much more if understanding how our body works - and that does not refer to fake-science which only looks at the visible portions. I will share more of this when the time is ready. But for now we have a planet to save. Raising one's frequency through a healthy diet is key for that, though. 6 2 10:01 PM	7-Apr-2022	https://t.me/c/1688716656/82528

I agree, everything stems from a healthy diet..but there are core issues the body needs to function properly. If you are existing on fruits and vegetables, sure you will be ok for a time, but you will see the deterioration after a while. As others have mentioned, hair loss, brain function. Adrenaline will sustain you for a time, then you will loose that function too. I don't know how old you are, but in your younger years this may not be so evident, but as you age you will definitely see it in your skin, hair, and brain function. 13 10:07 PM	7-Apr-2022	https://t.me/c/1688716656/82469

Kimberly, I worked for the natural hygiene movement and TC Fry at the Life Science in Austin, Texas for 3.5 years. He was the main proponent of a fruitarian diet. He always said we get way too much protein in the diet that harms the kidneys that must remove the excess and store it in the bladder. We get 1% of protein from fruits and the body recycles what proteins we need as a matter of course. He mentions that gorrillas are massive muscular bodies and eat primarily fruit all day. Protein is likely not the cause of lack of energy but the consumption of inorganic citric acids which is all pervasive in foods and drinks is likely the culprit. Inorganic citric acids are unusable and compete with the organic citric acid receptors in the body. Citric acid is needed to produce 2/3rds of our energy of the Kreb's Cycle of cells. So by design the powers that be have effectively reduced the energy levels of humans in the western world countries by nearly 2/3rds by flooding foods and drinks with inorganic citric acids. You can mostly reverse this lack of energy by drinking real lemonsade each day which has natural citric acids in it. I have written an article on this inorganic citric acid problem and will post it now in the Health and Wellness board., — J.E. Ante JA 17 1 6:07 AM

He sais in one of his videos that it was a program to make us eat meat and lowerour vibration and corrupt our psyche, so we accept the idea of harming other living specious as normal. It was like a vampire's kiss. It also allowed them to thrive eating us and sacrifising us togods. These mental and psychic viruses are withing every oneof us. We can clear ourself by reducing external protein intake gradually but all together. Our body is producing necessary proteinitself. Veg protein is good but only as mental element till we believe we donotneed it. We can eat it, but do not need it. K 7 1 6:09 AM
Kimberly Reply Kath Dear Kim, dr Lipton states that we human do not require outside... I agree and we used to have amino acid packed fruits too. The problem is, our available foods in grocery stores lack the nutrients they used to. K 10 2 6:27 AM	8-Apr-2022	https://t.me/c/1688716656/82839

I will do some more checking, but historically it is meant to be some very negative alignment, this time it aligns with the Creator central sun hence the reason some are saying it is Angelic while the negative cabal says it is prime time for negativity Kala Sarpa Dosha.
