Each one brought something to the table.. It didn't last forever, but there is something we needed to see. I also went back and recorded with gaia for 5 hours AFTER I knew "what/who" he was from the night before.. why? Because there was something I had to learn/see there. People cross our paths, sometimes for a season, and everyone brings you a lesson or a tidbit that somehow fits into source's great plan for your life. There are still things Thomas said which were correct and fit into the puzzle years later.. If it wasn't for Tank I wouldn't have met I isa, and several others who have participated in the last 11 months of the war and have been critical in getting things done on time, and of course I wouldn't have met all of you. I spent almost 3 years with 2 people from the Black Sun, if it wasn't for them I wouldn't have found out who they are, how they work and what they do. If I hadn't traveled the world and run into the agencies everywhere I wouldn't know how they work either. There are NO mistakes in life, only lessons and each one of these people both good and bad I have learned from. What you may see as missing the mark, I consider it a blessing from Source and see just how amazing and magical Source works in all ways. 7 163 day 33 day 23 🐚 16 🥰 6 edited 3:58 PM Light Chick Reply Niek vanD Probably you missed Kim's report when she briefed all of us wha... I know Kim stated the tests also have Femto-Tech in them, and other nasty things as well. In my opinion this may have affected her discernment ability or she may be mind controlled by it. I used to watch her few years back and she does not appear the same personality wise. There is definitely something strange going on with her fascination for 107. Also, on one of her interviews with Kim, one of her eyes appeared to be darker and irritated (half closed) could that mean a vril infection?

It did arrive in Durango last night, there was a whole lot of talking so I just locked the system down and went to bed. There were several people whom sat in the chair and nothing happened. 27 attempts to access the system from the same terminal last night between 9:46pm MST and 1:48am none worked. Seems there are still a few people that want to try some more stuff.. There is a meeting today scheduled for the afternoon. One giant cluster.. zero results.. Thomas I was one of a small group praying multiple times per day for the Pope to consecrate the USSR and fulfill the Fatima Prophesy in the 1980s and long overdue. It took a couple of years for our focused prayers to take effect (i.e. up to me!) The consecration was quickly followed by the breakup of Russia into unique governing bodies. It was my understanding that consecration was to have broken up NATO per the prophesy as Russia could no longer contract and thus WWIII was aborted. Now I understand it was a Black Sun good guy/bad guy dance. Yet it feels that the Fatama prediction part of the prophecy could only be changed by Kim's Hall of Records work. I have patience with people, but we just are not ready as a race for sovereignty. I have faith we will be one day. That was in response to people who said we don't need the old structure anymore. We don't NEED it, but we would erupt into total chaos if it was done right now. There are plenty of good people out there..and they will rise up and lead the change over the next few years. Once that is done we will see a whole new world emerge. Meanwhile we can work on restoration, and they will come. They will begin to see a new way, a better way. Once they do they will join with us. There are some who won't, and those people will be removed, and are being removed to clear the pathway for the rest of YOU. Some cling to old ways and old things. Some want to move forward to a better way now, but we have to be cautious and mindful some "talk a good game" and "do" the opposite. Those people are also going away. Absolute power corrupts absolutely. As I said in a lifeforce call a while back, focus on the end goal of restoration, we are the oppressed. The government isn't going to listen to you regardless of how many papers you wave around. Heck think about it, I gave trillions to governments and not one of them listened to me either. I understand the prices and I understand everyone is struggling as food/basic needs costs rise. This is straight down to the remaining operatives and string pullers. This is what I do every single day as I find them we "pluck" them. Basic income won't matter. Why? If they are still "running games" they will say ok, Kim released basic income, we will just raise the prices more and get the money out of the people (and out of Kim) one way or another. I am a strategist, and I have to play devils advocate. These people are far from stupid, very egotistical and to them life is a game. Things are not always as they appear.. Agencies do interesting things. People appear to carry on all the time.. dead men walking. Voice mimicking software is available to buy on line, imagine what agencies have? I was going to put out a warning because I know some operatives got his phone yesterday and started using his rolodex to do some horrible things. They were laughing about sending weirdo "intel" to youtubers. We shall see what happens from here after yesterday afternoon's events. 6:30 AM Kimberly admin 28-Aug-2022 https://t.me/c/1688716656/229330 https://lake.winnepocket.com/ Winnepocket https://t.me/c/1688716656/229331 28-Aug-2022 Lake Winnepocket Lake Winnepocket meta
