We've Moved!

Our new office is located at 1610 State Route 521 at the former Delaware Area Career Center North Campus. Who Sets the Speed Limit?

Ohio law governs the speed limits on all public roads and highways. Cities and villages have home-rule authority to set speed limits within municipal corporation boundaries, subject to certain limitations under law. Speed limits on local streets in platted neighborhoods are set by either the county commissioners or township trustees. On all other roads and highways such as state and U.S. routes, county highways and township roads outside of corporation limits, speed limits are established by the Ohio Department of Transportation and automatically default to 55 mph unless a lower limit is established based on certain objective criteria including the speed of existing traffic and the physical characteristics of the road.
