SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saturday: St. Romuald; Blessed Virgin Mary

GOD'S TIME

We either pay attention to or ignore "clock time" as we play in the summer sun and note the earth's tilt and the lengthening days. We live by time. We reckon time in seconds and minutes and hours, or we use broader chunks like supertime and summertime.

God keeps another sort of time. God speaks to us of "saving time," that is, the time of salvation. This sense of time is called kairos, and this time is always now, always present and available, always revealing, often surprising.

This Sunday's readings alert us to the reality and the import of God's time. Ezekiel and the Gospel of Mark remind us that our labor and our plotting and our planning rest in God. For God takes our smallest efforts and makes of them great works. Paul points us to the "harvest" time, urges us to be watchful for its coming, and calls us to recognize that we must spend our time pleasing God.

THE CHURCH AND THE SPIRIT

Where the Church is, there is the Spirit of God; and where the Spirit of God is, there is the Church and all grace, and the Spirit is truth.

—St. Irenaeus

FEAST OF FAITH

The Preparation of the Altar

The altar is the focal point of our churches. It is a sign of Christ in our midst; indeed, it has been said that “the altar is Christ” (Dedication of an Altar, 4). The altar is a table “on which the sacrifice of the cross is perpetuated in mystery throughout the ages until Christ comes”; but it is also the place for a festive meal: “a table at which the Church’s children assemble to give thanks to God and receive the body and blood of Christ” (Dedication of an Altar, 4).

Both these functions of the altar are clear in the rites for the preparation of the altar that follow the general intercessions, which remind us of the preparations we make at home for a festive meal. The deacon or altar servers come forward and, bowing, place a cloth known as a corporal (from the Latin for “body”) over the altar cloth. They place the chalice, the cup to be used in the celebration of the Eucharist, and the Sacramentary or Roman Missal, which contains the prayers of the Mass, on the altar. These reverent preparations help us to focus on what is about to happen: the sharing of a holy meal, a solemn sacrifice.

Bishop Stika lifts mask mandate at Masses. Obligation to attend restored.

Bishop Richard F. Stika has lifted mask mandates for all Masses in the Diocese of Knoxville beginning the weekend of May 22-23, which is Pentecost Sunday.

“Effective this weekend, the use of face masks by parishioners during Mass will be optional,” Bishop Stika said. “This decision wasn’t made lightly, and it comes after consulting with medical professionals who live in the diocese and after reviewing much of the data on vaccination and infection rates. Our parishes will remain diligent in making sure we can worship in a clean and safe environment — but I think it’s time we eliminate the mask requirement.”

The mask mandate was among a series of updated COVID-19 safety protocols outlined in a decree issued by Bishop Stika on May 18, the seventh such proclamation issued by the Bishop since the pandemic began in March 2020. The new protocols also include updates on the distribution of Holy Communion and reaffirm the decision to reduce social distancing in pews to 3-feet.

“At the discretion of the pastor, each parish may, but isn’t required, to set aside a small section in the church for those parishioners who desire to wear a mask and maintain 6-foot social distancing,” Bishop Stika added.

Bishop Stika previously announced that the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation in the Diocese of Knoxville also begins this weekend, May 22-23.

However, he said the obligation “does not apply to those who are ill, those who have reason to believe they were recently exposed to COVID-19 or another serious or contagious illness, those who are confined to their home, a hospital, or a nursing facility, those who care for the sick, the infirm, and the homebound, those who are unable to attend Mass through no fault of their own, those with underlying health conditions or in a high-risk category, and those who have significant fear or anxiety of COVID-19 exposure by attending Mass.”

To read the entire decree please go to: dioknox.org

Stewardship is an important concept for our spiritual growth as Catholics. It is a way of thanking God for all His blessings by returning to Him a portion of the time, talent and treasures we have received.

FIESTA DE LA FE

El altar como la mesa familiar

Después de la Liturgia de la Palabra, la asamblea y la oración litúrgica cambian de escenario. La mirada de la asamblea, así como todos sus movimientos se fijan ahora en el altar. Este altar tiene forma de mesa, ¡es una mesa! En torno a ella la asamblea comerá el pan y la bebida de salvación. A él van quienes tienen hambre, quienes afectados por su naturaleza humana, han dado paso al pecado en su propia vida y sienten la necesidad de reconciliarse, no sólo consigo mismos, sino con sus hermanos y sobre todo, con Dios. Esta es la mesa de la unidad, de donde fluye el amor sin límites, el pan de vida. A él van quienes se sienten vacíos aun cuando lo tienen todo. En esta mesa – altar, no hay diferencia alguna, todos solidarios por la filiación divina, por la fraternidad con Cristo, por la condición humana que nos une en la gracia y en el pecado nos separa. Venimos a esta mesa reafirmando lo que somos como hijos e hijas de Dios, venimos a presentarnos nosotros mismos como don vivo, como ofrenda agradable, venimos a ofrecer un sacrificio de alabanza, a bendecir a Dios porque él mismo ya nos ha bendecido.

EL TIEMPO DE DIOS

O le ponemos atención o ignoramos “la hora del reloj”, cuando jugamos en el sol del verano y notamos la inclinación de la Tierra y la prolongación de los días. Vivimos en el tiempo. Marcamos el tiempo en segundos, minutos y horas, o hablamos de segmentos más largos como la hora de la cena o el verano.

Dios marca el tiempo de otra manera. Dios nos habla de “ahorrar tiempo”, es decir, el tiempo de la salvación. Este sentido del tiempo se llama kairós, y esta vez es siempre ahora, siempre presente y disponible, siempre revelador. A menudo sorprendente.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos alertan sobre la realidad y la importancia del tiempo de Dios. Ezequiel y el Evangelio según San Marcos nos recuerdan que nuestro trabajo y nuestros planes dependen de Dios. Porque Él toma nuestros pequeños esfuerzos y hace de ellos grandes obras. Pablo nos señala el tiempo de la “cosecha”, nos insta a estar atentos a su cumplimiento y nos llama a reconocer que debemos dedicar nuestro tiempo a agradecer a Dios.
