Disclosure Statement, Informed Consent & Agreement of Services

This document is intended to provide important information regarding your treatment. Please read the entire document carefully and be sure to ask your therapist any questions that you may have regarding its contents.

Welcome!

Here at Luisa Contreras Family Therapy, Inc. / La Vida Life Counseling Center, an MFT Corporation, we are a dedicated team of professionals working to ensure your quality service. Treatment will be provided by Ryan Borland, Associate Marriage and Family Therapist 112661; registered with the Board of Behavioral Sciences.

Confidentiality.

All communications between you and your therapist will be held in strict confidence unless you provide written permission to release information about your treatment. If you participate in marital or family therapy, your therapist will not disclose confidential information about your treatment unless all person(s) who participated in the treatment with you provide their written authorization to release. (In addition, your therapist will not disclose information communicated privately to him or her by one family member, to any other family member without written permission.)

With the following exceptions:

- (1) Physical and/or sexual abuse of minor (s)
- (2) Elder abuse (physical, abduction, isolation, neglect, fiduciary)
- (3) Abuse of a dependent adult due to his physical/intellectual condition
- (4) Situation where a minor could be in danger
- (5) Attempt or plan to commit suicide/homicide
- (6) When there is a legal case where the mental/emotional status of the client is an issue

▲ If you have an emergency, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency location. If you need to speak to your therapist urgently, you can call (949) 441-2290 during office hours. To communicate after office hours, you can leave a message.

Minors and Confidentiality

Communications between therapists and clients who are minors (under the age of 18) is confidential. However, parents and other guardians who provide authorization for their child's treatment are often involved in their treatment. Consequently, your therapist, in the exercise of his or her professional judgment, may discuss the treatment progress of a minor client with the parent or caretaker. Clients who are minors and their parents are urged to discuss any questions or concerns that they have on this topic with their therapist.

Appointment Scheduling and Cancellation Policies

Sessions are typically scheduled to occur once per week at the same time and day if possible. Your therapist may suggest a different amount of therapy depending on the nature and severity of your concerns. Your consistent attendance greatly contributes to a successful outcome. In order to cancel or reschedule an appointment, you are expected to notify your therapist at least 24 hours in advance of your appointment. If you do not provide your therapist with at least 24 hours' notice in advance, you are responsible for payment for the missed session.

Therapist Availability/Emergencies

You are welcome to phone your therapist in between sessions. However, as a general rule, it is our belief that important issues are better addressed within regularly scheduled sessions. You may leave a message for your therapist at any time on his/her confidential voicemail. If you wish your therapist to return your call, please be sure to leave your name and phone number(s), along with a brief message concerning the nature of your call. Non urgent phone calls are returned during the therapist's normal workdays within 24 hours. Your therapist may not be able to return phone calls after 6pm on weekdays, nor on weekends. If you have an urgent need to speak with your therapist, please indicate that fact in your message and follow any instructions that are provided by your therapist's voicemail. In the event of a medical or psychiatric emergency or an emergency involving a threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 911 to request emergency assistance.

Communications, Social Media And Confidentiality

Please note that due to client confidentiality, your therapist will not contact you other than in the scope of your treatment and the ways indicated below. Your therapist will not "friend you" or contact you via any social media; with the exception if you follow or interact with their professional profiles or pages. If you encounter your therapist outside of the office, do not be offended, as your therapist will not make any indication or attempt to interact with you; you are free to address your therapist. At times, your therapist or the office may need to communicate with you by telephone or other means for arranging appointments or other non-clinical communications. Please note that some of these forms of communication are not secure or HIPPA protected, so do not send sensitive or clinical information via these forms of communication; simply notify your therapist to contact you as soon as they are able. I also understand agree that any pictures, video or audio recording will have to be agreed and approved in writing by client, parent/caregiver, and mental health provider.

Disclosure: Sensitive, clinical information is to be discussed over the phone or in-person as deemed appropriate by the therapist. For appropriate e-mail or text communication therapist will respond to your e-mail or text within 24 hours. Potential risks of using electronic communication may include, but are not limited to; inadvertent sending of an e-mail or text containing confidential information to the wrong recipient, theft or loss of the computer, laptop or mobile device storing confidential information, and interception by an unauthorized third party through an unsecured network. E-mail messages may contain viruses or other defects and it is your responsibility to ensure that it is virus-free. In addition, e-mail or text communication may become part of the clinical record. You may be charged for time the therapist spends reading and responding e-mail or text messages.

Financial Policy - Standard Fees And Insurance

Below are the terms of agreement regarding payment for services and sessions at Luisa Contreras Family Therapy, Inc. / La Vida Life Counseling Center.

Standard Rate Fees – Due upon service

The fee for service is $140 per individual therapy session.

The fee for service is $140 per conjoint (marital /family) therapy session.

The fee for service is $25 per group therapy session.

1. Individual sessions and conjoint (marital /family) session fees are based on a clinical hour, which is defined by BBS as 45-50 minutes in length.
2. La Vida Life Counseling Center is an out of network provider and does not accept insurance payment. Fees are payable to La Vida Life Counseling Center at the time that sessions and services are rendered. Cash, Check or Credit Card are accepted.
3. I, the client, understand that if I choose to use a credit card, that all service & session fees will be automatically charged at the end of each session via Ivy Pay, which is HIPPA compliant.
4. If a client's payment is returned or rejected, a $25 fee per incident, on top of the amount owed, will be due and payable immediately. This includes credit card on file being declined.
5. All fees paid are for sessions and services rendered. I, the client, understand and agree that all payments are for sessions and services rendered. All fees are non-refundable, non-creditable, and non-exchangeable at any time.
6. Although La Vida Life Counseling Center is happy to assist your efforts to seek insurance reimbursement for Out of Network providers by providing a SuperBill, we are unable to guarantee whether your insurance will reimburse you for services provided. La Vida Life Counseling Center is not responsible for any insurance reimbursement or lack thereof; it is solely the responsibility of the client. A SuperBill will be provided to the client upon request, at the end of each month.
7. If I, the client, fail to appear for an appointment without a 24-hour notice of cancellation, appointment fees will be charged and I will be responsible for payment.
8. I understand that if I am late to a session, that session will end at the time originally scheduled. It is my responsibility to arrive on time.
9. Services including phone calls, emails, record reviews, and professional consults at times other than the scheduled therapy session are the patient's responsibility. These services will be billed per quarter of an hour at the standard rate of $140 per hour.
10. Services regarding court cases, including subpoena, reviewing or copying files, or court appearance or testimony will be billed per quarter of an hour at the standard rate of $500.00 per hour. Any court appearance or testimony by therapist will be billed at a minimum of 4 hours.
11. I, the client, understands that if I do not pay for services, or become in arrears, that I will not receive treatment or services.
12. If for some reason you find that you are unable to continue paying for your therapy, you should inform your therapist immediately. Your therapist will help you to consider any options that may be available to you at that time.

About The Therapy Process

It is your therapist’s intention to provide services that will assist you in reaching your goals. Based upon the information that you provide to your therapist and the specifics of your situation, your therapist will provide recommendations to you regarding your treatment. We believe that therapists and patients are partners in the therapeutic process. You have the right to agree or disagree with your therapist’s recommendations. Your therapist will also periodically provide feedback to you regarding your progress and will invite your participation in the discussion. Your therapist will work with you to develop an effective treatment plan. Over the course of therapy, your therapist will attempt to evaluate whether the therapy provided is beneficial to you. Your feedback and input is an important part of this process. It is the goal of your therapist to assist you in effectively addressing your problems and concerns. However, due to the varying nature and severity of problems and the individuality of each patient, your therapist is unable to predict the length of your therapy or to guarantee a specific outcome or result.

Termination Of Therapy

The length of your treatment and the timing of the eventual termination of your treatment depend on the specifics of your treatment plan and the progress you achieve. It is a good idea to plan for your termination, in collaboration with your therapist. Your therapist will discuss a plan for termination with you as you approach the completion of your treatment goals. You may discontinue therapy at any time. If you or your therapist determines that you are not benefiting from treatment, either of you may elect to initiate a discussion of your treatment alternatives. Treatment alternatives may include, among other possibilities, referral, changing your treatment plan, or terminating your therapy.

Your signature indicates that you have read this agreement for services and sessions carefully and understand all of its contents. By signing this agreement, you are agreeing to all policy and procedures noted in the agreement, including confidentiality, informed consent, communications policy and financial agreement.

I, _____, authorize and request that Ryan Borland, Associate Marriage and Family Therapist 112661; to perform assessment, diagnosis and treatment, which now or during the course of my therapy are advisable. I understand the purpose of these procedures will be explained to me and be subject to my verbal agreement. I understand that there is an expectation that I will benefit from Psychotherapy, but there is no guarantee that this will occur. I understand that maximum benefit will occur with consistent attendance and that at times, I may feel conflicted about my therapy, as the process can sometimes be uncomfortable.

I certify that I have read and fully understand this Consent of Treatment, I agree to be treated (or my child) by the therapist mentioned above, who is under the clinical supervision of Luisa Contreras; Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist #82977 and Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor #651.
