

13TH ANNUAL STROKE SYMPOSIUM

REGISTRATION: 6:45AM – 7:45AM; SYMPOSIUM: 7:45 AM – 12:50PM
WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 25, 2019
EVERSOLE AUDITORIUM

ROCKIN-N-ROLLIN THRU STROKE CARE

0745 -0800	Welcome and Introductions Donald Smith, RN Denise Goings, MSN, RN, SCRN – Stroke Program Coordinator, Navicent Health
0800- 0845	TransCarotid Artery Revascularization (TCAR) for Stroke Prevention –“You’re So Vein” Jason Chapman, MD, Vascular Surgeon, Navicent Health
0845 - 0945	A&P Review of the Brain – “How Will I Know” Shelley Nichols, MSN, RN, SCRN, Quality & Systems Improvement, AHA/ASA
0945 – 1015	Break with Exhibits
1015 – 1045	Emergent Treatment of the Stroke Patient – “Staying Alive” John Wood, MD, EC Medical Director, Navicent Health
1045- 1115	Seizure Management – “You Spin You Round” Matthew Smith, MD, Director Primary Stroke Center, Navicent Health
1115- 1145	Barriers to Discharging the Stroke Patient - “Go Your Own Way” Tracy Garber, RN-C, Nurse Manager, 5-East Navicent Health
1145 – 1215	Women and Stroke – “I am Woman” Nzinga Robertson, MD, Neuro-Hospitalist, Navicent Health
1215 - 1245	Patient Perspectives - Survivor Panel: Women’s Stroke Survival Stories – “I Just Want To Celebrate”
1245 - 1250	Questions/Closing Remarks/Evaluation - “Happy”

OBJECTIVES

- Providers will be able to distinguish last known time well from discovery of symptoms.
- Understand hurdles faced by the survivor.
- Describe the Transcarotid Artery Revascularization procedure for stroke prevention
- Identify the basic anatomy of the adult human brain and its major components to include the cerebrum, brainstem, and cerebellum
- Discuss Seizure treatments
- Review barriers to discharging an acute stroke patient
- Discuss additional stroke risk factors posed for women as opposed to men.

NeuroServices
NavicentHealth

Continuing Nursing Education Nursing Education and Professional Development at the Medical Center, Navicent Health is an approved provider of continuing education by the North Carolina Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

Register at: eventbrite.com. For more information: goings.denise@navicenthealth.org/478-633-1544