

TACKLING MODERN SLAVERY POLICY

POLICY STATEMENT

Easy Hands International Ltd commits to developing and adopting a proactive approach to tackling hidden labour exploitation.

Hidden labour exploitation is an exploitation of job applicants and workers by third party individuals or gangs other than the employer or labour provider, including rogue individuals working within these businesses but without the knowledge of management. It includes forced labour and human trafficking for labour exploitation; payment for work-finding services and work-related exploitation such as forced use of the accommodation. It is understood that it is often well hidden by the perpetrators with victims if they perceive of themselves as such, reluctant to come forward.

Coverage

This policy applies to all our sites and offices, extended to our customer's workplaces for all our employees.

Responsibility

The overall responsibility for this policy is for Easy Hands management, his recruiters, training managers, supervisors and team leaders.

Policy Commitments

Easy Hands shall:

1. Designate appropriate managers to attend "Tackling Hidden Labour Exploitation" training and to have responsibility for developing and operating company procedures relevant to this issue.
2. Accept those job finding fees are a business cost, and will not allow these to be paid by job applicants.
Easy Hands will not use any individual or organisation to source and supply workers without confirming that workers are not being charged a work finding fee.
3. Ensure that all staff responsible for directly recruiting workers are trained to be aware of issues around third party labour exploitation and signs to look for and have signed the Recruiter Compliance Principles
4. Ensure that labour sourcing, recruitment and worker placement processes are under the control of trusted and competent staff members.
5. Adopt a proactive approach to reporting suspicions of hidden worker exploitation to the Gangmasters Labour Abuse Authority (GLAA) and police.
6. Provide information on tackling "Hidden Labour Exploitation" to our workforce through a variety of formats such as workplace posters, worker leaflets, induction, and training.
7. Encourage workers to report cases of hidden third-party labour exploitation, provide the means to do so and investigate and act on reports appropriately.
8. Positively encourage and support employees to report such exploitation which may be occurring within their communities via GLAA and Stronger Together websites.
9. Require the clients and other organisations in the labour supply chain to adopt policies and procedures consistent with the above.

Easy Hands Management