

TOTAL TEAMWORK

Created by David Ball

The TOTAL TEAMWORK Training/Coaching Program was developed over seventeen years to help individual contributors grow business/people skills and expand perspectives to maximize their efficiency, effectiveness and job satisfaction. Training is conducted in (2) two hour, public sessions once a month for (6) six consecutive months. This in-person, experiential, spaced learning format has proven to increase retention and promote lasting behavior change. Public sessions facilitate social learning by exposure to diverse perspectives from different companies and industries. Monthly one-on-one coaching solidifies action plan design and accountability forged in an environment of confidentiality.
