MY JOY SPEAKS
REMOVING BARRIERS
TRANSFORMING LIVES

*Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy;
at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.*

— Psalm 16:11

From His delight in His creation shown in Genesis to the thrilling joy of Revelation's everlasting gold and crystal end, God wraps His plan for a relationship with us in the brilliance of joy. And we, His image bearers, were made to reflect that joy as the central characteristic of His love.

The mission of My Joy Speaks is to transform lives through a renewed recognition of joy in living by teaching the power of self-discipline and accountability in developing godly relationships.

“ I believe joy is the wellspring of a person's energy for achieving life's best. My desire for the people I teach and motivate is that they reach their greatest potential by finding their source of joy to shape dreams, create goals, and celebrate achievements, giving God the glory through it all. ”

Mecca R. Johnson, CPLP
speaker / trainer / coach / consultant

Mecca Johnson offers a unique approach and passion for encouraging others to know who they are in Christ. She focuses on empowering each listener to develop priorities aligned with the Word of God.

Raised in a Christian home where the Bible was the greatest source of truth and wisdom, Mecca experienced early the firm foundation of knowing and loving Jesus. She often tells how she would memorize Bible verses before playing outside each Saturday. As a child, Mecca did not appreciate that discipline; but grew to cherish how those experiences prepared her to meet life's challenges with the solid foundation of the truth of God's Word.

Mecca speaks from her heart and mingles her own life experiences in the joy she shares of courageously walking through this world as a woman of faith. "My heart's cry," she insists, "is that those with whom I have the privilege of interacting as we share the love of Jesus and wisdom of God will sense the presence of the One who loved us and gave Himself for us."

Experiencing this artful communicator brings laughter through tears of joy, restores your source of joy, and supplies the tools necessary to create achievable goals, all to undergird your "walk in the light of His Word." Mecca believes whatever the world hurls at us, "Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever!" What we face each day is no surprise to Him; He has provided our way of escape.

Do you need a trained and certified speaker who will inspire and encourage your audience to live with the strength of joy? You will be glad you chose Mecca. Her methods are professional, purposeful, and rewarding. She grounds her message in God's Word; she connects with authenticity; she succeeds in breaking through barriers to transform lives as she points them to Christ.

What others who have experienced Mecca's passion have to say:

“ Funny, uplifting, inspiring, and effective professional who teaches with an inviting spirit and leaves her heart print on those who learn from her. ”
