

Ballers Football Academy

Terms & Conditions

Placements

Academy spaces are very limited therefore on occasions we will operate on a 1st come 1st served basis. Placements offered are not secured until a completed registration form is returned & fees for the term have been paid in full. Siblings may on occasions receive preferential placements.

Refunds/Missed Sessions

We operate a no refund policy. Once your child's space is secured, it's there's for the duration of term booked. Missed sessions are non-refundable nor exchangeable.

Training Groups

Players training sessions/groups/days may change throughout terms to ensure players are in the correct group for their personal development.

Postponed/Cancelled Sessions

If for any reason sessions have to be postponed due to reasons out of our control including Venue closures, staff illnesses/shortages & government enforced national lockdowns, we'll replace standard sessions with virtual workouts for the remainder of the term.

Credits

If for any reason credits are offered, they are valid for the following consecutive term only.

By registering your child with Ballers Football Academy, you agree with, understand & except all of the above.
