

I AM PARIS

PERFORMING AT ULTRA MUSIC FESTIVAL
BAYFRONT PARK, FLORIDA
MAR. 26, 2021

BIOGRAPHY

On February 17, 1981 Paris Hilton was born in 1981. Paris Hilton is one of America's most recognized media personality. Some may call her a hotel heiress, but Paris Hilton has built an iconic image for herself. She quickly rose to fame when she starred in the reality TV series 'The Simple Life'. Since starring in 'The Simple Life,' Paris has accomplished many things. One of them being an international DJ. Paris made her DJing debut in June 2012. Since then, she has performed at clubs and stages all over the globe.

It's no secret that Paris Hilton is sort of the OG reality television star and since The Simple Life wrapped up in 2007 Paris made cameos in plenty of other reality television shows. Most notably Paris could be seen in a couple of episodes of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills as she is Kim and Kyle Richards' niece as well is in Keeping Up with the Kardashians as Kim Kardashian has been in Paris' life for a long time. In 2008 the movie The Hot Chick was released and it starred Paris Hilton as one of its lead characters. The movie ended up being a huge critical failure and the reality television star ended up receiving the Golden Raspberry Award for Worst Actress for that role. Paris may have starred in a very bad movie, but that certainly didn't stop her from pursuing acting.

While Paris Hilton was born into wealth as she is the great-granddaughter of Conrad Hilton, the founder of Hilton Hotels — there is no doubt that Paris expanded her wealth through everything she did since becoming famous in the early 2000s. According to Celebrity Net Worth, Paris Hilton is estimated to have a net worth of around $300 million. Besides being a model, actress, reality television star, singer, and DJ, Paris also has 19 product lines, 50 boutiques worldwide, and a club resort in Manila, Philippines. In 2020, Paris Hilton came out with her documentary on Youtube called, This is Paris. In the documentary, Paris is honest, open, and very emotional and she gives the viewers a glimpse into what her life is like. The documentary clearly shows that the 39-year-old has grown from a fun reality television star into a strong woman.

PERFORMANCE HISTORY

On June 23, 2012 Paris Hilton made her first debut at night club-love celebutante in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Hilton's career as a DJ is a relentless grind. She is on the road 250 days a year, she says, and makes sure her team books her until 4:00 a.m. whenever they can. "As a businesswoman, I want to get the biggest fee possible, so I want to go to the places where they have a budget and it'll be worth my time," she says. That's why she's spending Monday morning at the club for her weekly summer Foam and Diamonds Party. Amnesia is a regular gig: she's been a resident summer DJ for five years running, putting on an eclectic set for two near-dawn hours every Sunday night.

TOPICS TO ASK

DJ HISTORY

Paris has made an appearance at multiple clubs, venues, and music concerts around the globe. She loves to talk about her past DJing sets.

PERFORMANCES

It is okay to ask which of her sets has been her favorite. She has performed many times at many venues, she will love to talk about her favorite show.

TOPICS TO AVOID

MONEY

Do not ask questions regarding money. It does not matter how much Paris is making while performing at Ultra Music Festival. We are here to promote the music festival, not to figure out how much she is making.
