The Prince of Egypt explores the unbreakable bond between two brothers, Moses and Ramses, as their lives are dramatically altered by revelations of identity and purpose. Set against the backdrop of ancient Egypt, this emotional journey delves into the heart-wrenching conflict between familial love and justice. As Moses fights for freedom and Ramses clings to tradition, they both struggle with personal transformation, the weight of leadership, and the power of compassion. With unforgettable music by Stephen Schwartz, this inspiring tale of courage and brotherhood reminds us that the greatest battles are often fought within.

$425 Tuition includes student script, show t-shirt, costume rental, musical theatre instruction and production experience. See below for Tuition Policy.

Due to the amount of material covered each week in rehearsal, absence is discouraged. If a student misses a rehearsal, they may not be placed in the material covered that week at the director's discretion. Absence during auditions, dress/tech rehearsals and performances is not permitted. Canvas ballet shoes are required for this production. No jewelry or nail polish may be worn for the dress/tech rehearsal or shows – no exceptions.

Registration opens November 3. Please visit www.jeterbackyardtheater.com to register. You will receive an email confirming your place in class. Tuition payment is due within ten days of registration or your spot will be forfeited.

TUITION POLICY: On or before January 5, 2025, a $50 administrative fee will be deducted from the total refund amount for cancellation or transfer for any reason. Refunds are not available for any reason after January 5, 2025.
