Bingo Captain Notes from Pete, Rocco, and Kris

We are so happy that Bingo is back!!! We had to cancel Bingo for five straight weeks due to two hurricanes, power outages, and air conditioning issues. We all enjoyed Halloween this year because we could play Bingo and see each other again. The free hot dogs certainly helped get everyone in the mood. We look forward to continuing Bingo for the first three weeks of November. Please note there will be no Bingo on Thanksgiving Day. Please enjoy that day with your loved ones.

As for the hurricanes, some of our players and volunteers lost everything they had in those two storms. We have tried to help as much as possible for those that are hurting. Making those people whole will take a long time. As Knights, we have prioritized helping those in distress. Some of our programs were affected by the hurricanes (we had to cancel our monthly breakfast) but we'll be back stronger than ever.
