The greatest healing I know is the new birth, and it's spiritual; but the spiritual is so dynamic that it effects the physical. Now it's basically in believing, because those people of the Old Testament could not be born again. If they were properly taught and they believed, then believing brought a lot of healing to them. But in our day and in our time, "If thou wilt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This, I believe, is the greatest healing. Now accompanying this, of course (this birth of Christ within), is speaking in tongues, where you build up that inner man, that spiritual man. The Word declares because of this new birth, that God is at work within us to will and to what?... Do His good pleasure. You all know III John 2 which says, "Beloved I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health." Well, that spirit of God working within us has never been analyzed as to how much it does physically for us. But the Word of God says that He worketh within us to will and to do of His good pleasure, and one of His good pleasures is III John 2, His will, right? Prosper and what? ... Be in health. Now, it's not just to be born again, it's to be born again with the renewed mind on what our sonship rights are and what we have in Christ, because you've known a lot of people that have been born again but nothing happened to them physically. The reason it didn't happen to them physically is because they never put on the mind of Christ, and what really happened to them spiritually when they were born again.

This is why our teaching ministry is so dynamically urgent. Just teach, teach, teach, teach. Then I believe that perhaps the greatest thing I know in all healing is love. Now you know the foundation's done, but then in practice, it's that love.

I Corinthians 12:27-31:

Now you are the body of Christ [whether we like it or whether we don't, we are the body.] And [we are] members in particular. [Not everybody's a sore thumb in it. Not everybody's a pointing finger, not everybody's an eye, but every part of that body is very important.] And God set some in the Church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities [genus] of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? Have all the gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

This more excellent way is chapter thirteen, which is the greatest chapter in the Word on the love of God in the renewed mind in manifestation. You see, God so loved (according to John 3:16) that God gave His only begotten son. Now you and I are sons of God. Now we must so give, that others can learn to live, for as we give, they live. If God so loved that He gave, the least that you and I can do is so love that we give.

You know it's so easy to criticize, it's so easy to find fault, it's so easy to see wrong because that's the natural man. That's how we were born and raised. That was the environment; that's the culture we came out of. Now we're born again. Now we are believers being motivated by the greatness of God's Word, and we have to just drive ourselves to get over that criticism, that fault finding, that seeing the wrong all the time. God so loved that He what?... Gave. I remember Moses, I remember Abraham, I remember David, I remember a lot of others in the Old Testament that God so loved that He gave. I remember Paul; God so loved that he gave. Boy, if we could just discipline our minds to never say anything but that which is positive and on the Word. What a day that would be! Just to never say anything except that which is good about someone. If we couldn't say anything good about anyone, then we better look at ourselves, because everyone has something good that we could share.

In I Timothy 6:10, it says that the love of money is the root of all evil. If the love of money is the root of all evil, then by sheer logic the love of God in the renewed mind in manifestation must be the root of all good. Money represents the world, the power, the structure. Nothing wrong with the world, nothing wrong with the power, nothing wrong with the structure, except once they get money, they never get enough of it. That's why the love of it is the root of all evil. They never get enough. The love of God in the renewed mind in manifestation is like this. We'll never get too much of the love of God. We can always use more. Spiritually He's given us all, but we haven't put it on up here. Just picture for a moment; just remember the healing that came when somebody really loved you, with that love of Christ. Not that possessive, not that egotistical type of love, not that get-something-out-of-you type of thing called love; no, no. But where they just opened their heart to you; and just took you in and tenderized you with the love of God in the renewed mind. I don't know anything more healing than to be loved, than to just gather someone into your spiritual arms, so to speak, into your heart, into your mind, and just share your dynamic love with them, with that Christ that's in you, just tenderly.

You know anybody can raise hell, but very few people who are Christian ever get to the place of really exuberating love, tenderness, kindness, forgiveness, understanding. Think how healing it is when someone just walks up to you and takes you by the arm and says, "I sure love you." A lot more healing than someone take you by the arm and say, "Well what in the h--- is the matter with you?" Isn't it now? You see, we've heard that negative side, and all that bad stuff. We seldom take a look at how healing a place can be where there's a believer with that love. Golly, you are the greatest arm of God's healing in the world today! You heal, just by loving people, by tenderizing them, by taking them in. Now you may not agree with what they're doing, they may be wrong, you may have to show them a little scripture, but you can do that lovingly too. God is our Father; we are His children. If God so loved, we are His children, then we love. There is no other way of bringing great healing. Now I'm not just speaking spiritually, I'm speaking physically (physical healing) because that love does something to people that makes their blood flow better, I don't know, muscles function better. I don't know what happens in the physical body, I just know it happens. It warms them on the inside. They say that worry gives you ulcers, because it does something to your blood stream and it eats out your stomach or your intestines and you get ulcers. Well if that poison in the bloodstream is from worry, think of the sweetness of love in there! Then love would be healing. Love would tenderize and love would bring that blood to flow better. You know, when you loose your temper and you really jump up and down, just think how sick you feel on the inside. How your old heart just pumps like crazy, and you get all red in the face. Just the opposite of what love does. It'll settle that heart down and it'll beat normally and nicely. I doubt if any of us has ever taken a look at the healing wholeness of love. And when you spell it all out from God's Word, the Word says, "How can we say we love God if we do not love our neighbor?" God so loved that He gave. You can just look at verse after verse on love. Every one of them, you will see, is contributing toward making you and me physically whole. Nothing is as healing as that love.

I looked up a few verses of scripture that I thought would bless you.

Proverbs 12:17-18

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

So there are two ways of going, one is the love way, the other is the opposite. "Speaketh like the piercing of the sword." You know, loud voice, yelling at each other, or at someone, are like the piercing of a sword; it cuts, it injures. But the tongue of the wise, not piercing, but out of love, speaketh truth, showeth forth wisdom; that brings health.

Proverbs 16:24

Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

Pleasant words come from the heart of love, and the heart of love is the heart that has been tenderized with the love of God in the renewed mind, where we've put on the mind of Christ and we speak and we walk with that mind and with that love. It says also in Proverbs that death and life are in the power of the tongue. Death and life are in the power of the tongue! All sickness is death in whole or in part; all healing is deliverance in whole or in part, as needed. Death and life are in the tongue!

Proverbs 13:17

A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

Faithful ambassadors holding forth God's Word bring health. One of the reasons we don't minister here every Sunday night is because I'm just so convinced that this place has the love of God here, and the accuracy of the Word. And I am just so convinced that when we speak with that love of God, that the healing has to come. You've got to build people's believing on the Word. Sure I could minister healing every night, but that's not the greatness of what I believe in. I want the Word, the Word in this ministry. I believe it's wonderful from time to time for me to minister, but I think the greatest ministering is the ministering of the Word! It's that Word that liveth and abideth forever. It's that Word that brings healing, and people have to get confidence in the Word and not in a man. They gotta get confidence in God and His Word. Now the man is a vessel, that's fine-need it-but boy, the Word, THE WORD! A faithful ambassador brings health by teaching the Word and by loving people. You see, in spite of the shortcomings of all of us, we still have the greatest amount of love radiating of any peoples any place in the world; and as ambassadors holding forth the love of God, it will bring health to people. And it's that Word you want to promote.

Isaiah 58:7-8

Is it [talking about the fast] not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy reward.

Do you know what that means? Sometimes men are prone to help somebody else, but they won't help their own kids. They're sweet on everybody else's woman except their own wife. Sweet on everybody else's man except their own husband. Sweet on helping the poor heathen in India, but not their next door neighbor. They want to send a missionary to India, when they ought to be missionarying next door! That's what that verse means.

If we get things in proper order with the new birth, the manifestations, speaking in tongues, studying to show ourselves approved by putting on the mind of Christ and rightly dividing it. And then just have that love of God in the renewed mind in manifestation, the physical healing is fantastic among a group of believers. Because it's built on the Word, and the Word delivers, the Word heals.
