FHA 580 Loan Option

- FICO credit score as low as 580
- Down payment as low as 3.5%
- Gift funds allowed
- Required homebuyer education class, purchase only

If your credit score is low, you may still qualify for an FHA loan, which is good news for lower-income and first-time homebuyers. An FHA loan offers some of the most flexible credit guidelines to approved lenders.

Owning a home is the American dream, and as an FHA-approved lender, Ruoff Mortgage is loosening some of our guidelines and lowering our credit score minimum to 580, to help make that happen.

You can rest assured I'll counsel you on potential ways to raise your credit score, while helping you secure a mortgage with an FHA loan.
