RUSSELLS POINT RESIDENTS

The Village of Russells Point is seeking public comments related to HB 172, known as the "Fireworks Bill", which legalizes the discharge of fireworks in Ohio on specific holidays. However, the HB also empowers the Village with the right to restrict or eliminate the private discharge of consumer-grade fireworks.

What are your thoughts? Should the Village continue to ban the discharge of consumer-grade fireworks? Should the allowable dates and times be further restricted than what is allowed by HB 172?

The Council is requesting the opinion of the residents of the Village at their next Council Meeting on Monday, May 16, 2022 at 7:00pm at the Russells Point Municipal Building, 433 St. Rt. 708, Russells Point, or you may email your opinion to fiscalofficer@russellspoint-oh.gov.

LOGAN COUNTY VETS TO DC

Send Off and Homecoming

Friday, May 13th
at 8am and
Sunday, May 15th
at 5:30pm

Our mission is to send Logan County Veterans who have never visited Washington D.C. on a weekend trip free of charge.

Please join us in wishing well the 2022 group as they disembark on and return from this year's trip.

We plan to have as many people as possible lining the departure route as the buses leave from the Logan County Fairgrounds and travel west onto Lake Avenue, and then north onto Main Street to their exit onto US Route 33. We will be lining the same route for their Homecoming.

FLAGS AND SIGNS ARE ENCOURAGED. WE LOOK FORWARD TO CONTINUED SUPPORT FROM OUR COMMUNITY!
