 - Incidents or acts which may be considered liable to bring the SYFA into disrepute
- 1.4 All members, officials and players shall co-operate with any SYFA or member leagues' investigation in respect of any alleged breaches of SYFA rules or procedures and shall provide information to SYFA or member league within timeframes provided. Failure by a party to respond to such requests may result in that party being placed under precautionary suspension until a response has been provided.
- 1.5 The principles of natural justice shall apply to disciplinary committee procedures.
- 1.6 All leagues must keep records of misconduct for the duration of the season.
- 1.7 The following principles will be applied in relation to the penalties imposed for misconduct at matches:
 - 1.7.1 Match suspensions cover all competitive matches played by the club or team, but do not include trial matches, friendly matches, regional or national trial matches or schools' football.
 - 1.7.2 A match that is abandoned and/or unfulfilled matches or postponed matches do not count as a completed match in terms of a player serving a suspension.
- 1.8 Any individual, player, official, club, team, league or association reported to the SYFA for an alleged breach of the disciplinary rules shall be referred to as the "Alleged Party in Breach".

2. REPORTING OF OFFENCES BY MATCH OFFICIALS

- 2.2.4 Where a player receives a fixed penalty, the player serves the suspension with immediate effect. Fixed penalty suspensions will apply to their team's next competitive match.

2.3 Serving of Suspensions – Fixed Penalty Automatic Suspensions (players)

For fixtures on COMET, the player cannot be added to a teamline as suspensions are entered automatically. All teams must inform their league secretary that they have registered a named player currently serving a match suspension(s).

2.5.5 Any official issued with a fixed penalty will result in their team being fined £40.00

2.6 Excessive Misconduct (EM)

- 2.6.1 Where a match official considers that a player/official has committed excessive misconduct (see appendix 2 and 3) at a match, they will submit an excessive misconduct report and this will be referred to the relevant disciplinary committee.

League will issue a notice of excessive misconduct to club/official/player.

The disciplinary committee may, where they consider the excessive misconduct to be at the lower end of the sanction scale, issue a fixed penalty suspension.

The disciplinary committee may cite a player/official to a disciplinary meeting and may impose a dated suspension for EM offences.

- 2.6.2 When a player is reported for Excessive Misconduct an automatic suspension will be applied. Further suspension may be applied after a disciplinary meeting.

- 4.8 The Disciplinary Committee may request match officials or any other witness to be in attendance at any such meeting.

- 4.11 Committee's deliberations in general:

- 4.11.1 The committee's deliberations should be undertaken in private and accordingly shall not be disclosed to the parties.

- 4.15 If a disciplinary committee receives a report or complaint that they deem may cause harm or the risk of harm to young people the disciplinary committee of the League or Region can immediately temporary suspend an official by notification to both the official and their club through email and then can apply within 48 hours to SYFA for confirmation of the Precautionary Suspension to be applied to an individual. To get confirmation of a precautionary suspension, you must email syfa@scottish-football.com clearly stating the reasons for the application of a Precautionary Suspension. A precautionary suspension is not a form of disciplinary action.
