

Information about the use of "cookies"

Our website uses "cookies" to distinguish you from other users of our site. This helps us provide you with a good experience when you browse our Site, as well as improve it. By using our Site, you agree that we use your "cookies" for the stated purposes.

A "cookie" is a small archive of letters and numbers that we store in your browser or on your computer's hard drive, when you accept it. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following "cookies":

Strictly necessary "Cookies". These are those required for the operation of our Site. They include, for example, those that allow you to register in secure areas of our Site, use the shopping cart or electronic billing services.

Analytical or performance cookies. They allow us to recognize and count visitor numbers to know how our users and visitors move through the Site. It helps us improve the way our Site works, for example, by making sure that our users come in by easily finding what they are looking for.

Operational "Cookies". They are used to recognize when you return to our Site. It allows us to customize our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (language, region, etc.).

"Cookies" of orientation or objective. They are in charge of recording your visit to our Site, the pages you visited and the links you pressed. We will use this information to make our Site and the marketing we present more relevant to your interests. This information may be shared with third parties, for this purpose.

You should be aware that third parties that may include marketing networks and third-party vendors may use "cookies" over which Agentes de Bienstar LLC has no control.

You can choose the "cookies" determinations of your choice, denying access to this Site, in your browser preferences. Please note that if you choose to block the total use of "cookies", including those that are essential to the operation of the Website, you may restrict access to certain features of our Site.

With the exception of those essential for the operation of the Site, "cookies" expire after 2 years.
