ATTITUDE: THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AN ORDEAL AND AN ADVENTURE

BY ANTHONY ADEFARAKAN

Life is a journey filled with hills and valleys—sometimes we face challenges that test our resolve, and other times we soar with joy. But one truth remains constant: our attitude determines how we interpret and respond to life's experiences. A simple quote I saw while on my prayer walk earlier today says it best: "Attitude is the difference between an ordeal and an adventure." This wisdom holds especially true for believers walking the path of faith. Consider the story of Paul and Silas in Acts 16. After being falsely accused, beaten, and thrown into prison, they had every reason to see their situation as an unbearable ordeal. Yet what did they do? "About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them" (Acts 16:25, ESV).

Their attitude transformed a prison cell into a sanctuary and a trial into a testimony. As a result, an earthquake shook the prison, doors were opened, and the jailer and his entire household were saved.

This is the power of perspective. The same situation can either crush or cultivate us depending on the posture of our heart. When viewed through the lens of faith and trust in God's sovereignty, even hardship becomes a divine classroom rather than a dead end. Romans 8:28, which happens to be my best scriptural verse, reminds us, "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose."

In everyday life, we've seen believers who, after a diagnosis, choose to become advocates of hope and healing; or those who, after job loss, launch ministries or businesses that impact thousands.

Their circumstances didn't change instantly—but their attitude did.

As Christians, we are called to "count it all joy" when facing trials (James 1:2), not because the pain is pleasant, but because the testing of our faith produces perseverance and purpose. Every trial is a potential testimony. Every detour, an opportunity for deeper trust.

So, the next time you face a challenge, pause and ask: Is this an ordeal, or is it the beginning of an adventure with God? Your attitude may be the difference. Let it be one of faith, courage, and expectancy.

DIVINE HEALING ON FLOURISH GOSPEL RADIO EVERYDAY OF THE WEEK

"THE WORD tells you how to develop your faith. "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Rom. 10:17). The literal Greek says, "Faith cometh by report, and that report comes from God." Hearing what God said will build faith inside you, because He's able to perform His every declaration" - Charles Capps.
