GETTING READY FOR OUR YEAR OF LIFTING AND FULFILLMENT

BY ANTHONY ADEFARAKAN

On Wednesday, October 29, 2025, at about 10:47 am MST, while fellowshiping in God's Presence at my residence, He declared the year 2026 for us as our year of lifting and "imuse" – the Yoruba language translation for fulfillment.

So, on behalf of the One Who can never lie (Numbers 23:19; 1 Samuel 15:29; Hebrews 6:18), I welcome you and all yours to 2026 – our year of LIFTING AND FULFILLMENT. The Mouth of the Lord has declared it, and it shall come to pass.

Now, when God declares His counsel concerning His children in this way, He has some expectations. First, He expects us to believe Him – that is, to consider His declaration as true without any form of doubt, regardless of how contrary things may appear now. That was the same expectation He had concerning Abraham when He declared him as a father of many nations, even though he was hopelessly childless at the time. Abraham had to disregard his obviously impossible situation and embrace God's Word to him as true; that's how God was able to fulfill His Word in his life (Romans 4:17-22). Only those who believe (no matter how senseless the promise may sound) shall see the glory of the Lord evidenced in the manifestation of what He has told them (Luke 1:45; John 11:40).

Second, He expects us to understand the implication (meaning) of this declaration in our lives and affairs, and align our hearts, thoughts, words, and actions accordingly. You see, it has been said that "out of sight is out of mind." What we don't keep our eyes on may eventually slip our minds. That's why it's important to write down, study, meditate on, pray about and even constantly speak out God's counsel. Doing these will help keep the Word fresh in our hearts and minds throughout the year, enabling us to align our decisions, steps, and actions with His counsel all year round – until it becomes second nature to us (Joshua 1:8; Jeremiah 30:2).

So, what does this prophetic word mean for us in light of these expectations?

1. Do not doubt it. Only believe.
2. Understand what it means for you and your situation(s), and begin meditating on it, praying it back to God as David did in 2 Samuel 7:25-29, aligning your decision, actions and expectations with it, and don't stop saying it with your mouth until you see it come to pass or hold it in your hands. See these definitions: "To lift" has been relevantly described by a dictionary as "raise to a higher position or level”; “move upward;” “pick up and move to a different position”; “enable (someone) to escape from an unpleasant situation”; “raise (a person's spirits or confidence) – encourage or cheer”; “formally remove or end (a legal restriction, decision, or ban).”

“Fulfillment,” on the other hand, has been relevantly described by a dictionary as “the achievement of something desired, promised, or predicted”; “satisfaction or happiness as a result of fully developing one's abilities or character”; “the act of doing or achieving what was hoped for or expected – like a dream or desire.”; and in commerce, fulfillment refers to “the process of preparing and delivering a customer's order” – maybe for you, this could imply heaven's eventual response to all the prayers you have offered as “orders”. The answers are now being prepared and delivered to you – as the fulfillment of your orders.

All of these could mean, in 2026, you will be: promoted, relocated to a different upward position in life, encouraged, enabled to escape from an unpleasant situation, freed from legal restrictions/bans, visited with the fulfillment of all God has promised you (like He did in the case of Abraham) – meaning you may need to go find all the books where you wrote down those promises and get ready to start ticking them off as He fulfills them one after the other, enabled to see your dreams come to pass right before your very eyes, empowered to fulfill your own promises to God and others, etc. Lifting and fulfillment will mean different things to different people – but one thing is certain: for as many as believe and align their lives with this prophetic word, the year 2026 will be characterized by testimonies of lifting and fulfillment.

3. You may need to generate and maintain a daily “Lifting and Fulfillment” journal from January 1 – December 31, 2026, to track God's dealings (divine manifestations of this prophetic word) in your life, family, and affairs; and to show Him heartfelt gratitude as He does His part. By the end of the year 2026, you will look at your journal and be amazed at how great God's integrity is in doing what He says He will do – when He is believed and fully trusted.

The Lord bless you and all of yours this new year in Jesus' Name. Shalom!
