BROKER'S CORNER - Will Squaw Valley's name be changed? The truth is that the jury is still out. The Federal Government has changed the name of the valley to Yokut Valley but the community is still Squaw Valley. The Fresno County Board of Supervisors has just adopted a measure to start litigation against the State of California to stop the state from changing our name. The lesson here is that it isn't over 'till it's over. We need to stand tall for our rights and let our voices be heard. There is more to come on this issue, so be ready to stand your ground. This is our community and we are proud of it. This nation was founded on the principle that individual rights count. DON'T TREAD ON US!!
