BROKER'S CORNER - Will Squaw Valley's name be changed? The truth is that the jury is still out. The Federal Government has changed the name of the valley to Yokut Valley but the community is still Squaw Valley. The Fresno County Board of Supervisors has just adopted a measure to start litigation against the State of California to stop the state from changing our name. The lesson here is that it isn't over 'till it's over. We need to stand tall for our rights and let our voices be heard. There is more to come on this issue, so be ready to stand your ground. This is our community and we are proud of it. This nation was founded on the principle that individual rights count. DON'T TREAD ON US!!

Stuff

It's sold to us like an idea that hints at a stable future:

wrapped in gleaming cellophane or glossy colored cardboard—

a laser printed mold cycling across conveyor belts, following economic trends. Flashy toys that poke the dopamine of childhood

nostalgia, or limited-edition tumblers, each we chisel into stones for our personal pyramids.

Every purchase latches onto another like strands of DNA, leeching its way into our identities, the embodiment of plastic.

Filling our cupboards and drawers until they return to cardboard coffins; stacks and stacks, crowding attics and basements, finally forced into rentable rooms that hide behind metal roller doors and padlocks. The post-modern temples that glorify thoughtless accumulation with the final blood sacrifice ending in landfills.

Once beloved items decompose in the heat, consumed by the earth like a cancer that festers on the loss of meaning.

Ask Amy - Tech & Odd Job Help

Hi neighbors! I just moved to the area a couple months ago and I'm looking to help out where I can. I've got a background in digital admin and business support - things like managing office systems, marketing, and technology. Pretty good with computers and phones too.

Things I can help with:

- Setting up email or fixing phone problems
- Paying bills online, canceling subscriptions you forgot about
- Website help for local businesses
- Facebook/social media ads if you're a business owner (especially if you sell to folks in Fresno too)
- Basically anything computer/organizing related that's driving you crazy!

$50/hr, $100 minimum. Happy to just sit down together and see what you need.

Sally jumped up as soon as she saw the surgeon come out of the operating room. She said, "How is my little boy? Is he going to be all right? When can I see him?" The surgeon said, "I'm sorry. We did all we could, but your boy didn't make it." Sally said, "Why do little children get cancer? Doesn't God care anymore? Where were you, God, when my son needed you?" The surgeon asked, "Would you like some time alone with your son? One of the nurses will be out in a few minutes, before he's transported to the university." Sally asked the nurse to stay with her while she said good-bye to her son. She ran her fingers lovingly through his thick, red, curly hair. "Would you like a lock of his hair?" the nurse asked. Sally nodded yes. The nurse cut a lock of the boy's hair, put it in a plastic bag, and handed it to Sally. The mother said, "It was Jimmy's idea to donate his body to the university for study. He said it might help somebody else. I said no at first, but Jimmy said, 'Mom, I won't be using it after I die. Maybe it will help some other little boy spend one more day with his Mom.'"

She went on, "My Jimmy had a heart of gold. Always thinking of someone else. Always wanting to help others if he could." Sally walked out of Children's Mercy Hospital for the last time, after spending most of the last six months there. She put the bag with Jimmy's belongings on the seat beside her in the car. The drive home was difficult. It was even harder to enter the empty house. She carried Jimmy's belongings and the plastic bag with the lock of his hair to her son's room. She started placing the model cars and other personal things back in his room exactly where he had always kept them. She lay down across his bed and, hugging his pillow, cried herself to sleep. It was around midnight when Sally awoke. Lying beside her on the bed was a folded letter. The letter said:

Dear Mom,

I know you're going to miss me; but don't think that I will ever forget you, or stop loving you, just 'cause I'm not around to say I LOVE YOU. I will always love you, Mom, even more with each day. Someday we will see each other again. Until then, if you want to adopt a little boy so you won't be so lonely, that's okay with me. He can have my room and old stuff to play with. But, if you decide to get a girl instead, she probably wouldn't like the same things us boys do. You'll have to buy her dolls and stuff girls like, you know. Don't be sad thinking about me. This really is a neat place. Grandma and Grandpa met me as soon as I got here and showed me around some, but it will take a long time to see everything. The angels are so cool. I love to watch them fly. And, you know what? Jesus doesn't look like any of His pictures. Yet, when I saw Him, I knew it was Him. Jesus Himself took me to see GOD! And guess what, Mom? I got to sit on God's knee and talk to Him, like I was somebody important. That's when I told Him that I wanted to write you a letter, to tell you good-bye and everything. But I already knew that wasn't allowed. Well, you know what, Mom? God handed me some paper and His own personal pen to write you this letter. I think Gabriel is the name of the angel who is going to drop this letter off to you. God said for me to give you the answer to one of the questions you asked Him: "Where was He when I needed Him?" God said He was in the same place with me as when His Son Jesus was on the cross. He was right there, as He always is with all His children.

Oh, by the way, Mom, no one else can see what I've written except you. To everyone else, this is just a blank piece of paper. Isn't that cool? I have to give God His pen back now. He needs it to write some more names in the Book of Life. Tonight I get to sit at the table with Jesus for supper. I'm sure the food will be great. Oh, I almost forgot to tell you. I don't hurt anymore. The cancer is all gone. I'm glad because I couldn't stand that pain anymore, and God couldn't stand to see me hurt so much, either. That's when He sent The Angel of Mercy to come get me. The Angel said I was a Special Delivery! How about that?

Signed with Love from: God, Jesus & Me.

Sal's Astronomy Corner

Squaw Valley Star Party.... Behind the Bear Mountain Library!
Oct 3rd starting at 7:30pm until the late owls go home.

The September Equinox

The biggest astronomical event of the month is the September Equinox on September 22, 2026. At the equinox, the Sun crosses the celestial equator, marking the beginning of astronomical fall in the Northern Hemisphere. In our area, the days will gradually become shorter while nighttime darkness increases.

The equinox is also an excellent reminder that the seasons are caused by Earth's tilt as it travels around the Sun—not by Earth being significantly closer to or farther from the Sun.

September 26: Full Harvest Moon.

Take advantage of the dark skies in our mountain communities. Choose a clear evening, turn off the outdoor lights, let your eyes adjust and simply spend 20 minutes looking up. You may be surprised by how many stars, satellites and other celestial objects become visible once your eyes adjust.
