Welcome!!! If you are visiting with us today, we want you to know that your presence is greatly appreciated. We invite you to attend any of our services and bible classes. Please let us know how we can be of greater spiritual assistance to you. We look forward to talking with you further following worship. Thank you so much for coming our way!

TO OUR VISITORS

We are confident you will find our service simple, orderly, and spiritual-following Bible examples for an atmosphere of reverence and humility-with each activity of worship intended to draw all of us closer to God.

Teaching and Preaching

Bible class and sermon lessons are designed to instruct and motivate us in the ways of righteousness found in God's Word, and encourage obedience to all His instructions and commands (Mathew 7:21). In so doing, you will not hear any claims for miraculous powers, see any demonstrations that evoke outward emotionalism, sensationalism, nor be subjected to non-Biblical topics.

Prayer

The congregation is led in public prayers by men of the congregation. We pray to praise and thank God for His blessings, guidance, and request His continued care over us (1 Timothy 2:1-4).

Singing

The entire assembly joins their voices together in songs that teach and admonish everyone in attendance while praising God in the manner He specified,"...making melody in our hearts unto the Lord" (Ephesians 5:19 and Colossians 3:16). We have no Bible example, instruction nor command in this regard, other than "sing."

Lord's Supper

Jesus instituted this memorial communion meal as well as its emblems (Mathew 26:26-28). By Bible example we observe this Lord's supper with awe and reverence every "first day of the week," the Lord's Day, as did the New Testament church (Acts 20:7).

Giving

The New Testament church's members contributed their monetary support on the first day of the week (1Corinthians 16:1-2), and in like manner so do we. Giving is of one's own free will, "cheerfully," and as prospered," (2Corinthians 9:7, 1Corinthians 16:2). Visitors are welcome to give but financial responsibility is of the congregation's members.

Again, we thank you for coming today. We trust that you appreciate and respect what you see and hear. Additionally, we hope you will count us as your friends and feel free to ask any questions you have- it is our privilege and responsibility to give you a Bible answer. If a personal Bible Study is your desire, we are glad to do that; just let us know.

From the Minister's desk...

Is the young man safe?

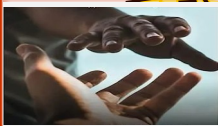

2 Samuel 18:24-32

King David was seated between the two gates when the watchman on the wall announced the approach of a messenger. The king anxiously inquired of the messenger: Is the young man Absalom safe? Not telling of Absalom's condition, that messenger got asked to stand aside. Another runner was arriving from the battlefield, and David's first question to him was about the welfare of the young man: Is the Young man Absalom safe? (2 Sam. 18:24-32).

Fathers and mothers need to be concerned about safety and welfare of their sons and daughters. Young people had better become worried about themselves. No young person is safe unless he makes his heart secure. David's son had a rebellious heart. He had tried to take the kingdom away from his father. When David was anxiously asking about the young man's safety, Absalom was already dead. In the bitterness of grief, David poured out his soul when he heard the tragic news: O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

Some parents wait until it is too late to take an active interest in the spiritual and moral security of their children. Some young people, like David's son, develop a rebellious attitude. I hereby appeal to the young people. I appeal to your good sense -- to think about how you may change your hearts. Parents let's go out of our way to keep all our youth safe this summer. Let's fully expose them to God's business for a while.
