Election of Directors, By-law No. 12

Any member of the Association who is a “Member in Good Standing” as defined in the Association’s by-laws may attend and vote at meetings of the Association and be elected a Director of the Association subject to the nomination eligibility provisions of this by-law.

A member is eligible to be nominated for election as a Director if:

- a. The member is “in good standing”.
- b. The member is not an employee of the Association or an employee of a company under contract to the Association.
- c. The member’s spouse or common-law partner is not a permanent employee or Director of the Association.
- d. The member or the member’s spouse or common-law partner is not a Director, officer or employee of other institutions or businesses that are engaged in activities similar to the activities of the Association.
- e. The member is in agreement with and is prepared to sign a commitment letter to adhere to the Director’s Handbook for Rural Gas Utilities (alternatively – adhere to the Association’s Code of Ethics)

The procedure for board nominations will be as follows:

- a. Nomination packages will be available 60 days prior to the Association’s Annual General Meeting.
- b. Nomination papers must be returned to the Association’s office 30 days prior to the Association’s Annual General Meeting.
- c. Nomination papers must be signed by 5 members in good standing.
- d. The board will vet all nominations to determine if a proposed nominee is a member in good standing.
- e. The names and history of each nominee will be sent to the members of the Association in a publication prior to the Association’s Annual General Meeting.

The election process will be as follows:

- a. Membership in the Association will be validated upon registration at the meeting.
- b. Members are only entitled to one vote regardless of the number of contracts.
- c. Each voting member cannot vote for more positions than are open for election.
- d. The ballots will be counted by the board nominations committee and scrutineers appointed at the Association’s Annual General Meeting.

The term of a Director is 3 years.

Retiring Directors are eligible for re-election.

Director Code of Ethics:

May 21, 2013

- I. As a Director of East Smoky Gas Co-op Ltd. (herein referred to as Association), I recognize:
 - a) That my fellow members have entrusted me with the development of the Association;
 - b) That I provide a direct link in the transfer of ideas, information, constructive criticism and suggested alternatives from the members to the Board of Directors.

- II. In view of the foregoing considerations, it shall be my constant endeavor:
 - a) To devote my time, thought and study to the duties and responsibilities of the Association so that I may render effective and credible service;
 - b) To work with my fellow Association Directors in a spirit of harmony and cooperation in spite of the differences of opinion that may arise during vigorous debate on points of issue, and keep these differences confidential outside of the meeting room;
 - c) To base my personal decision upon all available facts in each situation; to vote my honest conviction in every case, unswayed by partisan bias of any kind, thereafter, to abide by and uphold the final decision of the Board of Directors;
 - d) To not use my position to further the interest of any organization which is opposed to the interests and principles of the association, nor will I engage in any activities which would be prejudicial to the Association;
 - e) To resist every temptation and outside pressure to use my position as an Association Director to benefit either myself or any other individual or agency apart from the total interest of the utility;
 - f) To bear in mind under all circumstances that the primary function of the Association Board of Directors is to establish the policies by which the Association is to be administered but that the implementation of the policies of the Association shall be under the guidance of and delegated by the Associations manager;
 - g) To bear in mind if I have a grievance with a fellow member of the Board or staff of the Association, I shall make my grievance known to the Chairperson who shall be responsible to the endeavour or mediate the grievance;

- h) To understand that the Association requires that any committee member missing a committee meeting must make Chairperson of the committee aware of the reasons for his absence;
- i) To be aware that whereupon a committee member is absent from three consecutive meetings without a valid reason such individual shall be asked by the Board of Directors of the Association to step down from office, and that such committee member must agree to comply with a request to step down;
- j) To be aware that all minutes and information obtained by the committee member during his tenure on the committee must be returned to the Association upon resignation.

III. Confidentiality:

- a) All information, discussion and material that the Board of Directors, or committee Chairperson in its deliberations so designates as confidential shall be kept confidential;
- b) Retirement or resignation of a committee member constitutes that all information of the Association remains confidential;
- c) Classified documents are to be kept within the walls of the Associations office unless authorized by the Board of Directors;
- d) The procedure of acting upon said policy and discussion on motions within Association meetings shall be kept confidential outside said meetings.
