About:

Jack Austin is a rising singer-songwriter born and raised in Battle Creek, Michigan. Jack is currently in the process of obtaining a bachelor's degree of fine arts in musical theatre performance from Western Michigan University. Jack has notably sung at the famous Broadway venue Feinstein 54 Below with Broadway stars Jonah Platt and Mary Kate Morrissey. Jack loves to write music that spans a plethora of genres but mainly finds his true calling in pop music. Having spent a decent time searching for the right opportunity and platform to share his music, Jack Austin showcased his original debut single 'Give You My All' in 2021. The single is an upbeat pop song with hints of pop-rock. His music captivates his audience through imaginative storytelling which has a meaning or message that he has learned from his own life experiences. "My favorite element of music is storytelling. When I write a song I have to tell a story, and if it doesn't have a message behind it, I know I have failed. Because when there are an infinite amount of songs in the world, what's the point of telling a story that's already been told."
