

CHAIRMAN'S AWARD HONOREE GREG JACKSON

Gregory Jackson is President and CEO of Jackson Asset Management (JAM), a diversified and industry leading company. The JAM umbrella consists of Jackson Land Holdings, Prestige Automotive Group, and Wink Entertainment.

Jackson Land Holdings owns and operates Lafayette Towers Apartments, a 22-story high rise community that offers 584 luxury apartment homes, The Midtown Business Center, a 37,000 square feet commercial office building located in the Midtown Detroit area, and most recently, the Fisher 21 Lofts. This 600,000 square feet development is located near the I-75 and I-94 interchange and includes a $160M rehabilitation of the former Fisher Body Plant 21. Originally built in 1919, the new Fisher 21 Lofts will offer 433 apartment homes, commercial shopping, and an array of amenities. Jackson Land Holdings also built and developed fifteen ground-up and renovated auto dealerships.

Established in 1993, Prestige Automotive Group has owned and operated eighteen automotive dealerships in four states, and currently operates Mercedes Benz of St. Clair Shores and Prestige Cadillac of Warren, Michigan.

Wink Entertainment is home to Copper Ridge Golf Course and Banquet Center of Davidson, Michigan, an 18-hole golf course spanning over 238 acres.

Gregory is a member of the board of directors of Body Blocks Inc., which operates two separate Chinese / American joint venture enterprises based in Beijing and Wuhu China, OWN Capital Investment Group of Newport California, Ballistic Corporation, Henry Ford Health System / Health Alliance Plan (HAP), and Hope Community Development Corporation.

Gregory is heavily involved with advocacy organizations such as Children of Incarcerated Parents and Generation with Promise. Gregory has received hundreds of awards and honors for excellence in corporate leadership, professional achievement, and philanthropic endeavors.

A life member of Kappa Alpha Psi® Fraternity, Inc., he was bestowed the prestigious honor of the Laurel Wreath, the highest award available to a member of the fraternity.

Gregory holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Morris Brown College, an MBA in Finance / Marketing from Atlanta University Graduate School of Business and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).
