Muhammad Shahzeb Khan in Canada plans terror attack in the United States

Security officials have reported that Muhammad Shahzeb Khan planned a series of terror attacks in the United States.

This follows closely with of the Eldidi “father and son” case. Evidence of terrorist activity was not acted upon by immigration authorities.

We must help prevent Canada from being used as an operational staging ground for people who wish to do harm to others in Canada, the USA, and around the world.

Adequate immigration security precautions should be put in place, to guard Canada, and all Canadians.

There is a security gap in Canada’s Gaza Program.

There are recent reports that Iran is using sleeper cells to insert their agents into target countries.

As Gaza is ruled by Hamas, which Canada has designated as a terrorist organization, we believe appropriate security precautions should be a priority consideration by immigration officials.

Canada needs to balance the needs of the affected Canadian families with relations in Gaza, with the need to protect the security and safety of all Canadians, and the safety and security of the United States.

The arrest of Muhammad Shahzeb Khan shows the need to take the appropriate security steps that will protect Canada and all Canadians.

We must work together to prevent Canada from being used as an operational staging ground for people who wish to do harm to others in Canada, the USA, and around the world.
