SPIRITUAL TRADITIONS

I am Gloria aka Tiphayah Cannady and I have studied the "Genealogy" of my father and mother since 2004 which I have always seen as my hobby. My mother was the motivator who encouraged and supported me in my long desired hobby. Both my father and my mother were the eldest children in large families, the research never got boring. For example one of my early family tree designs from ten years ago displayed below, is research gathered from many family members records along with 1800s census to Five civilized Tribes scrolls and many conversations with many elders at family reunions and state vital statistics records to name a few resources my hobby has allowed me to become exposed to over the last 24 years.
