

Bible Study

Bible study is a foundational practice for Christians, offering spiritual nourishment and deeper comprehension of God's Word, aiding in personal growth and strengthening one's relationship with God. Additionally, the integration of arts and crafts can enhance Bible study by providing a creative, hands-on approach to scripture engagement. Visual representation, memorization aid, reflection, discussion, and personal expression are just a few ways in which arts and crafts can enrich the understanding of biblical passages. This approach fosters a multi-sensory experience, supports personal interpretation, and encourages practical application of the scriptures, making it a valuable tool for both individuals and communities of faith, regardless of age or background.

Adults with Intellectual Disabilities

Working with adults with intellectual disabilities is vital for creating an inclusive, compassionate, and equitable society that values the inherent worth and potential of every individual, regardless of their abilities. It helps fulfill their human rights, improves their quality of life, and enhances the well-being of the community as a whole.

Classes For Our Older Friends

Arts and crafts are valuable tools for improving the overall quality of life for older adults. They provide opportunities for self-expression, cognitive stimulation, and social engagement, contributing to the holistic well-being of individuals with memory-related conditions. Our activities are tailored to each person's needs and abilities, allowing them to experience the benefits at their own pace and comfort.

Teaching Academy

As a lifelong educator, my passion lies in nurturing the success of the upcoming generation of teachers within my teaching academy. Our programs are designed to equip new educators with practical real-life skills that are often not covered in traditional college preparation courses. Our students walk away from our classes with actionable strategies they can immediately implement in their classrooms. Our curriculum delves into crucial topics including classroom management, organizational skills, effective communication, relationship building, and the creation of a strong classroom community.

BACK TO SCHOOL DEBRIEF: MUFFINS & MIMOSAS

SPEAKER: DR. DEBI GRAVES
Education Professor
25+ years of Classroom Experience

10 AM SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16TH 2023 12 PM

This session is FREE ENTRY

13117 RIVER'S BEND BLVD.
CHESTER, VA 23836
(804) 920-7053 (TEXT)
(804) 667-6933 (ACADEMY)

This is a free event for new(st) teachers to meet and mingle with other new(st) teachers and have an opportunity to ask questions from Dr. Debi Graves and a panel of seasoned teachers about classroom management, student engagement, and discipline procedures.

REGISTER USING THE FOLLOWING LINK:

Group Classes

We also provide classes for adults, where our grown-up friends can savor a glass of wine while engaging in activities such as crafting stained glass, participating in paint nights, or creating seasonal crafts.

