

SIMPLE PLEASURES

by Elizabeth Gauffreau

EXPERIENCE THE BEAUTY OF NORTHERN NEW ENGLAND

*'Tis the gift to be simple, 'tis the gift to be free
'Tis the gift to come down where I ought to be ~ Shaker song attributed to Joseph Brackett*

The simple pleasures of our favorite places in nature are gifts of the spirit to be shared with others. In this collection of 53 haiku, each paired with a photograph, poet Liz Gauffreau invites readers to come with her to some of her favorite places in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine. Some places are long-time favorites going back years; others have become favorites by virtue of inspiring poetry.

READER PRAISE

“Elizabeth Gauffreau’s collection of haiku is spare, lyrical, specific, universal; a gorgeous meditation on place . . . and the echoes of time and memory.”

~ Carol LaHines, author of The Vixen Amber Holloway
