A Parent's Prayer Over Their Children

Heavenly Father,

I come before You with gratitude for the children You have entrusted to my care.

They are a gift from You, formed by Your hands, known by You before I ever knew them. Today, I intentionally place them back into Your hands.

Cover my children with Your divine protection. Guard their minds, their hearts, and their bodies. Keep them from harm seen and unseen. Let no weapon formed against them prosper, and let every plan of the enemy concerning their lives be dismantled.

Father, order their steps. Direct their paths. Give them discernment beyond their years and wisdom that comes from above. Where confusion tries to enter, bring clarity. Where pressure tries to form them, shape them by Your Spirit instead.

I pray that they will know You; not just know about You. Let them hunger for truth, love righteousness, and walk in humility. Surround them with godly influences and remove unhealthy connections that would lead them away from purpose.

Heal anything in them that I cannot see or fix. Where they may be wounded, rejected, insecure, or afraid, You be their refuge and strength. Let them grow confident in who You created them to be.

Lord, help me as a parent. Give me wisdom to lead, patience to listen, and grace to model what it means to follow You. Where I fall short, You remain faithful.

I declare that my children will live fulfilled, purpose-driven lives. They will walk in obedience, favor, and divine alignment. They are covered, they are called, and they are kept by You.

In Jesus' name, Amen

Amen
