Make plans to participate or contribute to our next fellowship opportunity for children and youth! We are planning to make treat bags to distribute to our neighbors that visit our Crisis Assistance and Step Ahead program on Thursday, December 18th. We are asking for members to bring bags of individually wrapped candy by the Parish Office, or to leave in the Commons in the designated collection box. Sunday, December 14th will be the last day to drop off candy as the treat bags will be being packed by our children and youth that afternoon in the Parish House.

On Wednesday, December 24th, there will be two Christmas Eve services; a service in the Chapel at 4:00 P.M., and a service in the Church at 7:30 P.M. There will be another one service at 9:30 A.M. in the Church on Sunday, December 28th.

♦ St. Paul's Winter Coat Drive
