The Jensen Family has hosted the Alan Jensen Memorial Roping annually for the past 3 years to support TNHSRA. Not only have they donated a substantial amount to be used towards the costs of the awards presented to the Tennessee state champions at state finals, they also will be presenting two $2500 scholarships at State Finals to 2 seniors who submit applications and meet the following criteria. Applications will be reviewed and selected by members of the Jensen Family. We are honored to have their support and encourage all seniors to apply for these generous scholarships.

Qualifications for the Alan Jensen Memorial Roping Scholarship

Character

Each recipient must represent themselves with a high level of integrity, honor and trustworthiness among their rodeo family and community. They must show effort of servanthood and sacrifice among their rodeo community and dedication to keeping the reputation of a rodeo athlete at its highest regard.

Academics

Each recipient must carry a 2.5 or above academic average to be eligible for said scholarship, and carry that average or above, throughout the academic year.

Servanthood

Each recipient must complete 10 hours of community service (ie, church, sorority, fraternity, school club or civic organizations) in the year they are recipient, and report those hours to the TNHSRA board at the end of the academic year.

From the Family

Alan Jensen was a man who held the values of rodeo in high esteem. He watched his children's character and skill improve with every season. The Jensen Family is looking to support the endeavors and dreams of students that are intentional, hardworking and passionate about their future. We look forward to hearing from you all.
