

IDEA: It seems that there are not enough formal places for artists to exhibit artworks in Scotland. I wonder if one of the solutions is to have a MODEL GALLERY. Where you can imagine you are a giant within the walls.

SOLUTION: An opportunity came about through my solo show in Linlithgow last year where I created a model of the Burgh Halls Gallery. It has now been in the Beautiful Materials Gallery in Newton Means and had four exhibitions with in it.

LOCATION: CITY PARK 368 Alexandra Parade, Glasgow G31 3AU South entrance on the third floor.

L1846mm x W870mm x H364mm

The model in Nicola Atkinson's solo show in Linlithgow Burgh Halls Gallery, May - Sept 2025.
