I had a great time. The tour consisted of long days but worth it to see everything we could in a short period of time. The guides switched but were all wonderful. I would and already have recommended Europamundo to my friends and family.

I had read some negative evaluations prior to booking this tour, but I am glad that we went ahead with it. We had none of the negative experiences that some people had. It was wonderful, we were given what we were promised, and we got to see an amazing part of our world. We had some wonderful tour guides (Sophia and Phillip) and they made it wonderful and fun. My only negative comment would be a bit of the accommodations. None of the hotels that we stayed at had a pool and that's so important for relaxing after you've had a non-stop day. The last hotel was building a pool, but it was not open yet.
