

Dear Fellow Citizens of Richmond

Hi, I'm Jeff Young, and I'm running for Mayor of Richmond. Last week, the Lions Club held a great Meet the Candidates night. Many of you showed up and asked great questions—But with over 50 online and more written at the event, not every question was able to get asked! Each question matters because it comes from people like you, who care about our town. I'm thankful for that, and I want to answer you. This flyer gives a quick look at my platform. For a list of questions, we couldn't get to, and my answers, check out my website. If you have more questions? Call or email me—I'm an open book!!

I love this place, just like you do. I served on the City Council and as Mayor before, and I loved helping our community grow stronger. A while back, I got really sick and chose not to run again so that I could focus on my health. Now, I'm healthy, full of energy, and ready to serve you again.

I'm a man of faith, and my family means everything to me. I try to lead with kindness and integrity. I value opinions different from my own. As a business owner, I've led diverse teams to success, giving me the skills to manage employee relations fairly. When I was Mayor, I made tough calls but always tried to do right by Richmond. If we mess up, I say we own it, fix it, and move on together. I believe in resolving conflicts quickly with respect and accountability.

I want to keep Richmond's small-town feel while making room for growing families. We need smart, slow growth to follow state rules and make sure our roads and services can handle it. I'll look at old rules and fees that make life harder for us and fix them, so Richmond stays a great place for everyone.

Our community events bring us together, but they cost money. I'll be upfront about those costs and let you decide: do we spend on events or keep taxes low? Your say matters, and I'll make sure you're heard.

I will draw on my experience and the experience of those I work with to ensure Richmond remains a place where families love to live, young people want to come back, and seniors feel at home. Together, we can build a bright future for Richmond by honoring our past and looking forward to the future.

New Ballot Law: Postmarks No Longer Count

Utah law now requires that mail-in ballots be received by your county clerk by 8:00 p.m. on Election Day (November 4, 2025).

This is a change from previous years—postmarks will no longer count.

What This Means for You

1. Mail ballots must be received—not just postmarked—by 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.
2. If mailing, ensure it arrives at the Cache County Clerk's office by 8:00 p.m.
3. Drop boxes are available until 8:00 p.m. on Election Day—the most reliable option.

How to Return Your Ballot

By Mail: Ensure your ballot is in the mail early enough to reach the Cache County Clerk's office by 8:00 p.m. on November 4. The U.S. Postal Service recommends mailing ballots at least one week before Election Day to account for potential delays.

In Person: Drop off your ballot at an official drop box location before 8:00 p.m. on Election Day. This is often the most reliable option.

The Official Drop Box in Richmond is located at:

90 S 100 W Richmond,
in front of the city building
