

Meet Your Mayoral Candidate: Jeff Young Committed to Richmond's Future

A Personal Letter to Richmond Residents

Friends and Neighbors,

I'm honored to announce my candidacy for mayor of Richmond, a place that means the world to me and my family. Richmond is more than just my home; it's where my wife grew up, where we chose to raise our four wonderful children, and where we have been surrounded by some of the greatest neighbors anyone could ask for. This town's warmth and sense of community are truly unique, and I'm deeply grateful for the trust, friendship, and support we've experienced here over the years.

Why I'm Running for Mayor

Richmond has shaped my family's story, and I am passionate about making sure it remains a safe, welcoming, and prosperous community for all. My decision to run for Mayor comes from a desire to give back to the city that has given us so much. I want to ensure that Richmond remains the kind of place where families thrive, where neighbors look out for one another, and where our shared values of hard work, honesty, and kindness are reflected in every part of our local government.

Experience That Matters

My background combines service and leadership. I've previously served as your mayor and as a city council member, working closely with our community to address local needs. Running a multi-million-dollar company also taught me valuable lessons in strategic planning, fiscal responsibility, and the importance of transparency. These experiences have prepared me to make informed decisions, streamline city operations, and always prioritize what matters most to our residents.

My Vision for Richmond

As mayor, I will stay true to the values that make Richmond special. I believe in empowering our residents and businesses by keeping government overreach in check. Working alongside the city council, I will focus on careful budgeting, improving our infrastructure, and fostering an environment where families feel safe and proud to call Richmond home. Our city's spirit—rooted in strong families and supportive neighbors—will always guide my approach to leadership.

A Personal Promise to You

I am, first and foremost, a husband and father who wants the best for his family and his community. I promise to serve with integrity, to listen to your concerns, and to keep your needs at the heart of every decision. Together, we can build an even brighter future for Richmond—one that honors our past and embraces the promise of tomorrow.

Thank you for your friendship, your trust, and the opportunity to serve this amazing city we all love. I look forward to working with you to ensure that Richmond remains a remarkable place to live, now and for generations to come.
