

Liber Academy/Alliance Code of Conduct:

Family Name: _____

Liber Academy/Alliance is here to support your homeschooling efforts with scholar projects, group activities and Junior classes. Building a community of cooperation and where lasting relationships will be built. We must put in place some rules, a code of conduct, to make this experience enjoyable for everyone involved. We understand that families have varying learning styles, and methods. We look forward to learning with you as we all follow a few basic rules to facilitate group learning and collaboration.

As Parents, Mentors and Students of Liber Academy/Alliance, it is expected that you will exhibit good behavior and respect to all involved in this organization.

I will obey the rules of the group.

- ★ Follow the directions of the mentors who are leading the group. Stay in the area your group is using. Be in class when classes are in session. Walk in the halls/home (no roaming the home, touching property/items in the home not being used for class purposes).
- ★ Keep hands and feet to yourself. Bring your personal supplies each week.
- ★ Respect other people's property (ie: don't damage, touch, or use, other people's property including: backpacks, phones, school supplies, etc.)
- ★ Use kind language. Be respectful of the facilities we have the privilege to use.

I will respectfully obey the directions of the mentors who lead the group.

- ★ I will participate in class to the best of my abilities.
- ★ When I need to speak or ask a question, I will raise my hand and wait my turn.
- ★ I will not disrupt my class--anyone giving a presentation and/or my mentor.
- ★ I will keep my phone put away during class unless otherwise instructed to use it.
- ★ I will ask permission to leave the room.
- ★ I will follow the class rules.
- ★ I will stay in the area that the group is using at the time.
- ★ I will help when asked to the best of my ability.

I will treat the property of others respectfully.

- ★ I will not destroy, mutilate, fold, rip, scuff, write on, or otherwise destroy the property of the building or another person.

Respect for the Facilities.

- ★ I recognize my behavior reflects on everyone in our Liber community as well as the homeschool community.
- ★ I will always conduct myself in a way that is courteous and respectful.
- ★ I will be mindful of my behavior.
- ★ I will walk and use an inside voice while inside the building.
- ★ I will clean up my messes.
- ★ I will help clean up messes in classrooms before leaving the classroom.

I understand and agree to abide by these rules.
