

Liber Academy/Alliance Constitution

Article I

Name

The formal name of this society is Liber Alliance for business use and Liber Academy for public relations and Member use.

Article II

Objective

We, a society of home schooling parents, who follow the philosophy of Thomas Jefferson Education (TJED) and the methodology of Leadership Education Mentoring Institute (LEMI), promote the Five Pillars of Statesmanship (Classics, Mentors, Simulations, Field Experience and God), create a commonwealth of sovereign families to provide an environment of academic excellence and to promote opportunities for selfless service that we may become virtuous leaders who strive to secure the legacy of liberty, do establish this Constitution.

Article III

Members

Section 1: Members

There are five types of Members who represent the body to be served:

- A. Parent Members are adults who have youth enrolled in Liber Academy classes or who have youth who were enrolled in Liber Academy classes in the past and want to maintain active membership by fulfilling all the membership requirements as stated in Article 3, Section 2.
- B. Youth Members are youth age 12 by December 31st of the current school year through the age of 18 and who are or have been enrolled in Scholar Phase classes, or youth ages 8 by December 31st of the current school year and older and who are enrolled in Love of Learning Phase classes or youth ages 0-8 and who are enrolled in Core Phase classes, and are a Son or Daughter of a Parent Member. If a Parent feels that their youth is ready to move on to the next Phase before these ages, they may appeal to the committee of Vice-Chairman, Mentor and Principal Mentor for an exception.
- C. Individual Members are adults who teach and/or attend Liber Academy's core (Scholar) classes. They do not have to meet member qualifications and do not have voting rights. They are granted seniority according to Article 3, Section 1A, after one year of participation at the school. In order to obtain Parent Member status they must fulfill Provisional Member requirements first.
- D. Inactive Members are any Members that have reason to take leave from Liber

Academy for a time longer than one year and do not wish to maintain active membership. They lose voting rights while they are away but may maintain seniority status. If they return and want to become a Parent Member (either again or for the first time), they must fulfill a one-year Provisional Member status in order to activate full Parent membership.

E. Provisional Members

1. All Parent Members are Provisional Members for their first year of enrollment until their membership requirements are met. (Not applicable to Individual Members.)
2. Provisional Members do not have voting rights.
3. Provisional Members may attend classes and activities during their provisional year.
4. A Provisional Member may vote at the Spring Meeting of their qualifying year if all qualifications have been met.
5. A Parent Member may remain a Provisional Member for just one year. If a Provisional member does not meet all qualifications in that year, they will not be given Parent Membership at Liber Academy and will be reevaluated by the Administrative Board for continued enrollment.

Section 2: Member Qualification

Families must fulfill the following qualifications in order to obtain and maintain Member status.

- A. Families and Individuals are eligible to join Liber Academy according to: firstly, seniority (those members enrolled in the previous years have seniority), secondly, proximity and thirdly, in order of application and upon completion of preliminary registration requirements.
- B. Preliminary Registration Requirements. Both parents in the home must fulfill the following before their youth may attend classes:
 1. Sign the closing statement of this Constitution.
 2. Sign the current year's Member Agreement that includes the Policies and Procedures.
 3. Attend a Parent Orientation Meeting that will define the Objective. (see Article II)
 4. Read, A Thomas Jefferson Education, Teaching a Generation of Leaders for the 21st Century by Oliver Van DeMille and/or Teach the Children by Neil Flinders. (First time Provisional Members only)
 5. Take the LEMI philosophy section of LEMI Mentor training as specified in the Member agreement or Policies and Procedures for the current school year. (First time Provisional Members only)

Agreement of the current school year.

- D. Members (except Inactive Members) must pay annual membership fees and applicable tuition according to the Member Agreement and/or registration of the current school year.

The Liber Academy Administrative Board reserves the right to refuse membership and enrollment to any person for any reason, whether disclosed or undisclosed.

- E. If a Parent Member does not meet the qualifications for the year, they will not vote at the Spring Meeting and will be moved to Provisional Member status for the upcoming year following a reevaluation by the Administrative Board for continued enrollment.
- F. If extenuating circumstances prevent a parent from meeting any requirement, they must contact the Parent Representative and make acceptable arrangements, which will then be approved by the Executive Board.
- G. Each Provisional and Parent Member Family, with youth attending classes, must serve at Liber Academy in a least one of the following ways:
 - 1. Serve on the Liber Academy Board
 - 2. Be a mentor or co-mentor in the classroom
 - 3. Assist a mentor or co-mentor, according to the Policies and Procedures and/or the Member Agreement of that current year.

Section 3: Membership Privileges

- A. Class enrollment. A person must meet the definition of Members as stated in Article III, Section 1, in order to enroll in Liber Academy classes.
- B. The Vote. One Parent Member represents the Parent Member vote. No other type of Member is given a vote. This is exercised at Parent Member Meetings and is dependent on meeting Member qualifications.
- C. Holding Office. Only qualified voting Parent Members may hold office at Liber Academy.

Section 4: Behavior Standard

To promote an atmosphere of excellence, Liber Academy expects a high standard of behavior. While attending Liber Academy activities, all Members and Teacher/Mentors are expected to:

- A. Show respect toward others and the facilities.
- B. Dress modestly.
- C. Use appropriate language.
- D. Avoid being disruptive, irresponsible, inappropriate or overall noncompliant.

Section 5: Discipline Powers

If the behavior of a Youth becomes unacceptable while at the facility, the Parent Member agrees to give the Teacher, Parent Assistant or other adult Member at the facility the power to diffuse a situation, ask a youth to check his behavior and if necessary ask a Parent to remove their child from the premises. In the case of this temporary removal, a follow up meeting should occur with the youth, a parent/guardian and appropriate Board Member and the disciplining party, as needed, before the youth is permitted to return to future Liber Academy activities.

Section 6: Member Status

Membership is from Spring Meeting to the following year's Spring Meeting. Members can be disassociated according to Article III, Sections 2 and 4.

- E. If at any time there is money left in the account at the end of the school year and after all accounts are reconciled, then the funds are to be put in a general fund and dispersed (not necessarily in this order) as follows:
 - 1. For start-up costs for the following school year.
 - 2. For any benefit to the school.
 - 3. For training expenses.

The Executive Board will determine disbursement. It is impossible to guarantee that every student will benefit from these funds.

- F. The Fiscal year will be from September 1st to August 31st. All accounts must be reconciled before the end of the fiscal year.

Section 9: Family and Student Capacity

- A. In order to facilitate a high quality of T.J.Ed., Liber Academy will accommodate a maximum of 75 youth members; maintaining appropriate class sizes. As soon as the number of youth registrants exceeds 45, Liber Academy will create a committee to investigate the possibility of the creation of a new school.

- B. In the event of a new school, each family will determine which school to attend and their choice will be awarded according to Article III, Section 2A with a minimum of 5 families in each school.
- C. Liber Academy will support the creation of a new school by allocating a one-time amount up to $150 for startup fees and by providing training for up to 3 Teacher/Mentors or administrators and up to two student assistants, if the funds are available.
- D. The creation of a new school does not prohibit classes, activities and/or service projects from being held jointly between schools.
